Charles Arthur Younkin aka "Charleroi Charley" from Charleroi, PA, was secretary of the Younkin Family Association that organized the Younkin Family Reunion from 1934 through 1941. From 1937 through 1941, Charles published eight (8) issues of the Younkin Family News Bulletin and distributed the bulletins to families across America. Inspired by Charles' publications and the work of the Younkin Family Association, from 1990 to 1996, Donna Christine (Younkin) Logan started new family reunions and published her and Charles' genealogy research findings in 25 new issues of the Younkin Family News Bulletin. In 2004 and 2005, Donna published two (2) more issues titled Junghen Family News Bulletin with the results of genealogy research in the ancestral village of Niederasphe, Hessen, Germany. The news bulletins, widely distributed by U.S. Mail, have a treasure trove of genealogy and history on the Junghen-Younkin family.

Donna, age 55, succumbed to cancer on January 4, 2006. Her husband Larry Logan and her family requested the research findings and bulletins be widely accessible so that future generations of Junghen-Younkin descendants can learn from her work. In 2008-2009, the late Ross Younkin scanned the bulletins into PDF files and made a limited number of compact discs (CD). The Younkin Family Reunion distributed the CDs for several years. By 2017, Mark T. Youngkin could not find a CD or PDF files, and he scanned the news bulletins to new PDF files and posted them to the Internet Archive. In early 2025, Youngkin created a table of contents and index of surnames for each bulletin volume to make genealogy information more accessible for research. Youngkin combined each volume of news bulletins into one PDF file for distribution and archiving with a cover sheet, publication list, table of contents, and index of surnames.

List of Younkin Family News Bulletins

Introducing our ancestry

By Donna Younkin Logan

Please allow me to introduce myself. My name is Donna Christine (YOUNKIN) LOGAN. I was born and raised in the Washington D.C. metro area. My husband, Larry, and I now live just north of Washington D.C. in Thurmont, Maryland. We have two children, Jennifer Janell & Joshua Matthew.

As a child, I was forever asking my Dad why we were the only family with this name. A name, I might add, that my teachers always spelled and pronounced incorrectly! Each year the new phone book would come out, I would check to see if any new YOUNKIN's had moved to town. This curiosity has carried over into adulthood.

Several years ago, while visiting my Grandparents, Karst & Catherine YOUNKIN, we started talking about our family history. With this invitation, my grandmother retrieved a huge box from storage filled with memories. This box contained an enormous collection of photographs, documents, hand-written memoirs and one very special item - an old (published 1938) issue of THE YOUNKIN FAMILY NEWS BULLETIN.

I was amazed that someone had taken such an interest in the YOUNKIN family as to produce this publication. Since this time, I have found that the editor was Charles YOUNKIN, of Charleroi, Pa. Not only did Charles produce the NEWS BULLETIN, there was quite an organization behind it. They held reunions where as many as 1200 YOUNKIN descendants were in attendance from all over the United States. I can't even imagine this many YOUNKIN's being in one place at one time!

This mild curiosity has blossomed into my current 'full-time' hobby of genealogy. My decision to re-activate the YOUNKIN FAMILY NEWS BULLETIN has truly been a hard one to make as it will take many hours of work to produce. But, with the encouragement of my family and other YOUNKIN family researchers, this 'introductory' YOUNKIN FAMILY NEWS BULLETIN is our NEW BEGINNING.

Our YOUNKIN family presents us with a rather unique opportunity not often found in genealogy. Unlike the families of SMITH & JONES it would appear that most (if not all) of us are descendants of the same two immigrant brothers. Why would I make such a BOLD statement? The research that we have uncovered gives us many clues. Our early roots in PENNSYLVANIA and the western movement of large family groups is but one indication. But it is an important one. Even today these same families have stayed, for the most part, in the same general areas that their ancestors pioneered in the early and middle 1800's.

My goal, with this publication, is to help each YOUNKIN cousin to trace his family line back to the 'immigrant brothers' and to encourage each of us to learn about our ancestors. It is only through the knowledge of our past that we can see the present and the future.

Between my own research and the research that has been shared by other YOUNKIN family researchers, we now feel as though we have enough information on the early generations to at least help most of you to trace your line back. We have copied many historical documents that I am sure you will find useful in this endeavor. Not the least of which are the Marriage & Baptismal records of the First Generation of YOUNKIN ancestors to be born on American soil. I will, in future issues, be reproducing all of records that we have found for you.

It is not our desire to deal only with the past generations - we are interested in the present generation too. We hope that each and every one of you will participate and keep us up to date on the happenings in your own immediate family. This way our NEWSLETTER will be a mixture of the past and present (just as the original one that Charles published was!)

Since many of you have never researched your family's genealogy, I will be introducing you to the How To's of researching your family tree. This should enable each of you to begin to investigate each of your other family lines in addition to our YOUNKIN ancestors.

Enclosed in this introductory NEWSLETTER I have attached several forms for you to fill in and mail back to me. The information on these forms will assist us in establishing your family line and will enable us to bring your family's history up to the current generation. IT IS NOT OUR WISH TO INVOLVE ANYONE'S PRIVACY - so please understand that filling in these forms is totally optional. Please feel free to copy the blank forms (and the newsletter, for that matter) if you would like to distribute it to others in your family. I have included a sample of my own Family Group Chart for you to use as a guide in filling them in.

I have chosen to send this during the Holiday Season in the hopes that, like most families, you will be 'gathering together' and will take some of this special time to talk about your family history, share your memories - A TRUE GIFT.

I can only hope that each and every one of you will join us in this endeavor. There is still so much to be learned about our ANCESTORS and it is you, as YOUNKIN descendants, that hold the KEY to the success of this endeavor.

Junghen Family in Bucks County

[provided by Laurel POSEY of Ca. This is a Reprint of an article that appeared in Vol. 1 No. 1 of the YFNB pub. Christmas 1937 - Part 1 - this article will be continued in the next Issue -]

In the Eighteenth Century, among the many German families who immigrated to America from the Palatinate, there were not a few of the name of JUNGHEN, JUNCKEN, JUNG, or JUNCKER, all of them in the second or third generation becoming YOUNGKEN, in various spellings. There was, however, a definite distinction in the use of the name by the Pioneer generation. The immigrants with whom we are concerned spelled it always JUNGHEN, and of this we have many proofs, possessing original signatures, and in the case of Henry, the inscription on his tombstone. The old form of the name can be traced to an ancient family of Lubeck, and the Coat of Arms is from the Seal of STEPHEN JUNGHEN in a document of 1411.

The first of this family to arrive was JOHANN HERMAN JUNGHEN, on the ship 'Charming Nancy', Oct. 8th, 1737. As usually found, his life for the first five years is unknown. We must realize that a large majority of our German ancestors were forced to work out their passage money after arrival. This was not through fault of their own. They started the journey with what seemed sufficient funds and provisions, but the trip down the Rhine took most of those. The wait for a ship at Rotterdam exhausted their resources and they were then at the mercy of the Ships agents, who induced them to sign contracts in a foreign tongue. When they finally after a tedious voyage came to Philadelphia, they found themselves forced to work three, four or five years as indentured servants to those who had hired them by paying the passage money. In the case of a young single man, as we may suppose Herman Junghen was, this was perhaps not a handicap. He had a chance to learn English and the ways of the country, and if he had a trade he was ready at the end of his service to settle permanently where he chose. But in the case of families, it resulted in separation and often entire loss of identity.

Herman Junghen however had no trade except that of farmer. He remained in Philadelphia County for some years and we suppose that he was free about 1742 and married at that time. His wife was named Magdalena and there is a definite tradition in the family, coming through her daughter, that she was of noble French blood and a Huguenot. However that may be, we know that she was not a member of the Lutheran Church as her husband was, since she did not stand sponsor for her children, and her only daughter was not confirmed till after marriage. Their oldest son, John, was probably born in Philadelphia in 1743. In April of that year, Herman Junghen was naturalized, this being the prerequisite to the ownership of property. He then went to Bucks County, buying at that time the plantation in Tinicum Township which became the Homestead. His second son was baptized in Bucks County in 1745. Some years later, in 1759, he invested in two tracts in Nockamixon Township, later sold to his oldest son, John, also in 1768, the mill property in Springfield Township, which he soon sold to his son-in-law and which became the HAUPT Homestead.

Three other sons and a daughter were born by the time he bought the later tracts of land, thinking doubtless that there must be a portion of land for each son. His wife, Magdalena, died about 1788 and he married again, a widow by the name of Eva SHILL, and by her he had one child, Killian JUNGHEN. Herman JUNGHEN died when this boy was eight years old and Killian was raised under the guardianship of his brother-in-law, Henry HAUPT.

[In the next issue, this reprint will be completed telling the story of the arrival and family of Herman's brother, Heinrich 'Henry']

I married a Younkin

By Larry Logan

It seems that my Younkin is starting a newsletter about the Younkin family. Well that's all very nice and good if you happen to be in that particular bloodline. But the fact that Old Uncle Charlie Younkin bought a new mule in 1799 is probably of interest only to a true Younkin.

What about all the rest of us, who through happenstance (or some really weird twist of fate) are now related to the entire Younkin family line through the institution of "marriage". I mean -- my Younkin just can't understand why I don't get all excited about visiting old graveyards that have Younkin's planted in them, OR why I don't get "goosebumps" when a copy of a Will is found for Great-Great-Great . . . whoever Younkin, that provides for the farm tools being left to the kids.

But all this newsletter business has 'got-me-to-thinking' What if all the people who have married Younkins have a lot in common with each other? Why, they could have more in common with each other than the actual bloodline relatives. You can't pick your relatives, but you can pick your marriage partner (shotgun weddings excluded).

Therefore, I've decided to write this column so that all of us "Younkins-by-Marriage" can compare some "notes", and maybe try to figure out why we all got involved with these people in the first place!

I have a lot of ideas for future issues. Here's some possibilities that jump into my mind:

Genealogy facts aren't always 'engraved in stone'

Genealogy is not an 'exact science'. Family historians offer what is called a 'Preponderance of Evidence' as their basis in preparing these histories. The dictionary definition of preponderance: the condition of being superior in weight, power, influence, importance. In reference to genealogy - what often appears to be fact may not be so. Take, for example, the use of tombstone inscriptions as the 'sole basis' for establishing an ancestor's year of birth. GGGGrandpa's tombstone gives the following: Born January 6, 1823

Died August 15, 1896

This would appear to be a rather 'exact' date. On further research, we find his Baptismal record which shows he was Baptized on January 15, 1822 (no birthdate is given). The possible reasons for such discrepancies are many. Some possibilities are: the engraver made a mistake and was never asked to re-do the headstone or the person who ordered the headstone engraving "didn't know but thought it was about" The Preponderance of Evidence in this case shows he was born 'sometime' before January 15, 1822 (and that is really all it shows).

Bible records are an excellent source for vital records but only if it can be shown that the 'entry' in the Bible was made at 'about same time' the event took place. Bibles that have a publication date of 1910 and contain vital statistics dating back to the late 1700's should be looked at with a 'cautious eye'. A good genealogist ALWAYS cites their source - Thereby offering the reader the opportunity to decide for themselves what should be 'Engraved in Stone'.

Genealogy is a bit like 'Humpty-Dumpty'
All the pieces fall apart over the years, and we try to put them back together !

"Why Younkings always have to have the 'Last Word' in any discussion?"

"The real reason that Younkings are so close to their family - (they have trouble making friends?)"

"Do all Younkings have problems with their memory?"

"Are the off-spring of Younkin marriages more like the Younkin or the non-Younkin?"

"Are the irritating habits of Younkings genetically passed on, or is it 'learned behavior'?"

Do Younkings mellow with age, or are they going to be like they are forever?"

I feel certain that you other I.M.A.Y.'s out there can also contribute some ideas for future columns. You may even want to write one yourself. I really think us I.M.A.Y. ought to stick together, because we sure all know what those Younkings can be like! Feel free to send your letters and comments to me, Larry I.M.A.Y. Logan, c/o the Newsletter address. Names can always be changed to protect us innocent "non- Younkings".

And, let's not get too serious out there. After all, this is going to be a humorous column. (And we all know what a good "sense of humor" the Younkings have - don't we?)

Looking forward to hearing from you.....Larry I.M.A.Y.

A thoughtful family gift

Every Christmas, Glenn Younkin of Ill., remembers his family with a extra special gift. Glenn is the Family Genealogist in his line of our YOUNKIN family and each year he has their FAMILY CHART professionally printed. As their family continues to grow and more and more ancestors become known - so grows the CHART !

I now have next years ANCESTOR addition. Glenn !

A 60th wedding anniversary

Karst and Catherine (BROWN) YOUNKIN, of Apache Junction, AZ., celebrated their 60th Wedding Anniversary on 30 Nov 1989 at a surprise party with over 100 guests in attendance. A nostalgic trip down memory lane was offered by the honored couple as they told of their lives together. Karst & Catherine met while they were both living in Deadwood, S. Dakota. After their marriage and the birth of their two sons, Gene and Don, they moved to the Washington, D.C. area. They remained in Washington until their retirement in the early 1970's. Since that time, they have planted their roots in Washington State and in Arizona (when they weren't traveling around the rest of the country!) We're looking forward to your 70th

RUDOLPH / RALPH YOUNKIN

For several years there has been quite a controversy as to whether the Rudolph Junghen/Younkin that is found in many early records is the same person that used the name 'Ralph'. In the next issue I will provide some 'newly found' records will bring this controversy to an end ! I am very pleased with this discovery as many of the YOUNKINS that I have assisted in their research descend from this line.

Our military men

Our Civil War Veterans

The men listed below are ones who served and also filed for a Pension. Many more served than are included in this list, but apparently they never filed for a Pension. For now, I am going to concentrate on these men as their Pension Files contain much in the way of family data. [see the example of my GGGrandfather-Aaron S. YOUNKIN]

I will feature several of these men in each future issue. If you have a particular interest in one of the gentleman listed below, just send me a note and I will be happy to include them as soon as possible.

Meet John Younklin

John's Service Pension File #30,744 is a unique one indeed. His claim for a Pension was for service performed in the War of 1812. By John's own statement he was drafted for a 6 month term in mid July 1814 into Captain Samuel Dorsey's Regiment of MD Militia. At this time John was living in Frederick Co., MD. He served for 7 weeks and then hired a Substitute. (note: The practice of 'hiring a substitute' was not at all unusual during these early Wars. With the demands of raising a young family in those days, it was understandably difficult to stay away for a long period of time.) Unfortunately his Pension was denied as, by his own admission, John had not rendered sufficient service 'personally'. John's statement tells us that after his discharge, in 1814, he remained in Frederick County, MD for 2 years then removing to Loudon Co., VA. for 1 year and in 1817 he again moved this time to Perry Co., OH. His Pension Claim is dated 20 July 1880 (stating his age, at this time, as 89 years) and he was living in Deavertown, Morgan Co., OH. John married Margaret TROUT in York Township, Morgan Co., OH. in February of 1820.

Our Younklin Research, thus far, contains information on over 2000 people. Are any of these your family?

Aaron Schrock Younklin

From our past . . .

Meet Aaron Schrock Younklin

Aaron was born 31 Jul 1845 in Somerset County, Pennsylvania. He was the 9th of Dr. Jonas and Martha (PRINGEY) YOUNKIN's 10 children. He moved, with his parents, at a young age (6 yrs) to Iowa City, Johnson County, Iowa. It was here that Aaron's father continued his practice of medicine and provided for his large family by enjoying the additional occupation of Farmer. Aaron, along with most of his siblings, removed from Iowa City, to our newly opened western territories, upon reaching adulthood. But it was while Aaron was in Iowa City that he enlisted, with the other young recruits, in the Civil War. Aaron's Pension File shows he enlisted on 26 Mar 1864 as a Private in the 5th Iowa Cavalry Company C. He was honorably discharged in Nashville, TN. on 11 Aug 1865. His file, also, tells us that he was married on 12 Jan 1871 in Galesburg, Knox Co., Illinois to Sarah A. ALTON. They were married by J.W. BUTLER. After their marriage, Aaron and Sarah moved to Kansas City and then a short time later to Beatrice, Gage County, Nebraska. They had the following children: Charlie (who died in infancy-the only record of this child was in Aaron's Pension File!); Grace YOUNKIN born in ILL.; William Eugene YOUNKIN born in NE.; Winona born in NE.; Martha Evelyn born in NE. Aaron's occupations included both merchant and farmer. He and Sarah celebrated their 70th Wedding Anniversary on 12 Jan 1941 and both died shortly thereafter (within 7 months of each other) in Omaha, Nebraska at the home of their daughter, Martha. Some additional items of note in Aaron's Pension file were the fact that he had had Scarlet Fever as a child that resulted in some degree of hearing loss. In the service, he was stricken with measles (for a second time!) and Typhoid Fever. [All of the above was contained in Aaron's Civil War Pension File and was additionally confirmed by my own research]

Query policy and suggestions

What's a Query ?????

It is, quite simply, any question you might have regarding your family. Some examples would be:

- Where was John YOUNKIN, who resided in Iowa City, Iowa in 1850 born? I would like to exchange information with others who have a connecting line to my John. Your Name and address.

- Need parents and siblings of George YOUNKIN of Alliance, Nebraska in the early 1900's? Your Name and address.

- My Great Great Grandfather, Michael YOUNKIN was said to have been born in Westmoreland Co., Pa. about 1800, does anyone have information on him? Your Name and address.

If other family members have information on the people or areas mentioned in your query they will write to you with the information that they have.

- Queries will be accepted, for publication in the YFNB, from subscribers only.

At this point, I would like to explain a few of the GENEALOGIST'S RULES OF COURTESY.

- 1) When writing to another family member for information, always enclose a SASE (SELF- ADDRESSED-STAMPED-ENVELOPE) This will insure you a prompt response and somewhat offsets the cost to them.
- 2) Ask specific questions.
- 3) Reply as promptly as possible.
- 4) Use ALL capital letters in SURNAMES (last names).
- 5) Avoid abbreviations in your queries, and in your letters to each other, they can very easily be misinterpreted and this could be disastrous.
- 6) If your query is answered by a family member or researcher, courtesy suggests that you reply 'in kind'. In other words, send them the information that you have on 'our' family - even if it is very little. Family research is strongly based on the 'exchanging' of information! I have found that genealogists are some of the most generous & helpful people I have ever met. Just a few weeks ago I wrote to a 'newly found' cousin in my ALTON family and this wonderful gentleman, in addition to sending me a copy of a 1930's family history, went to all the trouble of driving around town taking photographs of old family homesteads for me. What a special treat these pictures were!

FREE Newsletter offer—

For several years, we have tried to find additional issues of the original YOUNKIN FAMILY NEWS BULLETIN that was published in the late 1930's and early 1940's. We have not been very successful though - we have only found 2 issues. These 2 are wonderful and we are very grateful to have them as the information in them would have been lost forever if the individuals had not saved them.

With this in mind, I will offer any individual that has one of these old issues a FREE 1 year subscription to the new YOUNKIN FAMILY NEWS BULLETIN in exchange for a legible copy of any issue. This FREE subscription should more than offset your copying costs but more than that your generosity will be appreciated by many YOUNKIN descendants to come.

Happy Holidays
from our family
to yours!

What's coming in future issues?

- FAMILY HISTORIES (as submitted by you & other researchers)
- BIOGRAPHIES (Family Histories on our YOUNKIN ANCESTORS as found in 'Turn of the Century' County History books)
- MILITARY RECORDS & PENSION FILES: I have copied ALL of the Revolutionary War, War of 1812 & Civil War YOUNKIN Military & Pension Files that are housed in the National Archives in Washington, D.C. Each issue will contain abstracted information on several of these men

Don't miss a single issue . . .

This 'introductory' YOUNKIN FAMILY NEWS BULLETIN is being sent to over 600 families. Since I am personally underwriting this initial expense, I have kept my costs for this particular issue to a minimum. Future issues will be more costly as they will include a 'card stock' heavy cover and will have many more pages.

PLEASE NOTE:

Many of you are probably wondering where I obtained your names and addresses - the answer is quite simple - the TELEPHONE BOOK and a publication which I purchased about 6 months ago called YOUNKINS ACROSS AMERICA. I am sure that most of you received a postcard announcing the publication of this book and probably a number of you ordered it thinking it would be a Younkin Family History and were quite disappointed when you found that it was only a 'telephone book style' listing of other YOUNKIN families. We were just as disappointed when we ordered the LOGAN'S ACROSS AMERICA several years ago. Genealogists absolutely HATE these rip-off publications because when a legitimate book on a Family History is written people are afraid to order it thinking it is probably just another rip-off! But, quite frankly, I couldn't think of an easier way of obtaining a listing of as many YOUNKINS as possible. Unfortunately, this method did not give me any access to other variations in spelling such as YOUNGKIN - YOUNKEN - YONKIN. Nor did it give me access to the female YOUNKIN lines whose names have changed through marriage. I would very much like to contact them, but needless to say, I can not order every Telephone Directory in the country. I would be most appreciative if you would check you own phone books for other listings and send them to me along with any other family members you would like me to send a copy of this NEWSLETTER to.

I have established a yearly subscription rate of $12.00 per year for the YOUNKIN FAMILY NEWS BULLETIN - this will include 4 issues per year (1 every 3 months) and will begin with this 'Introductory' issue as the Jan-Feb-Mar 1990 Issue. Because this will be a 'subscription supported' publication, I will only be printing enough issues for the subscribers. In other words, 'Back Issues' will not be available. Perhaps one day this will be feasible, but for now, this is the policy necessary. Many newsletters are backed up (financially) by a Family Association and I hope that one day that will be possible for us too. Since this is a new endeavor for me, it will take a while for me to establish the ACTUAL costs involved with the YFNB's publication (paper, printing, postage, etc.). So, next year, I will adjust the rates (either up or down) depending on these expenses. My primary goal in this publication, is to produce a quality FAMILY BULLETIN that you will want to keep as part of your family's 'Archives'. In this regard, I welcome suggestions and feedback (both pro & con) that will help me to meet this goal.

Younkin Family News Bulletin

A Tribute to Our Family

Volume 1, Number 2

April, May, June 1990

Donna Younkin Logan, publisher

Dear Cousins,

The response to our initial mailing has been tremendous and shows what a dedicated family we truly are! Of the over 700 newsletters that I have sent out over the past 3 months - we have 98 subscribers to date. I am hoping that the remaining families are still considering it and will send in their subscriptions over the next few months. I would like to thank several of our supporters who, in addition to their subscription, sent an extra contribution. We truly appreciate this most generous and thoughtful gesture.

Now that the first issue is complete, I am able to estimate the yearly production expenses. It will take about 150 subscriptions for us to offset these yearly costs of production (a little more if the postal rates actually go up). If you haven't yet subscribed, please support our endeavor. We lost our Newsletter once, let's not let that happen again!

Almost everyone took the time and effort to fill in both the Family Group Sheet and the Pedigree Chart. In addition to updating family lines, these have helped me to decide which family lines to concentrate on regarding articles for the upcoming issues.

Many of you, also, took time from your busy schedules to include letters of praise for both myself and 'I.M.A.Y.' Larry. We are both grateful for these expressions of appreciation.

A big THANK YOU goes to some really special people. These cherished friends, though unrelated to our YOUNKIN line, have spent many many hours searching through and copying records for us. Robert J. Libby of Iowa City, IA - Rev. & Mrs. Newton Poling of Hagerstown, MD - Nancy Savio of Terre Haute, IN., Rosella Vohs of Decatur, IL., and Bob Rufe of Hockessin, DE., John Kubla of PA. Thank you for your kindness and generosity.

Several of you have sent in family information (family bible records, charts, etc.) - I am assuming that if you sent it in you do not mind if the information is published in our News Bulletin. If you would prefer not to have something published I hope that you will let me know [soon!].

I need to make something a little clearer to everyone - I am

YOUNKIN / FAIDLEY REUNION is alive and well in Wakefield, Kansas

This year it will be the last weekend in September - we are all invited - contact Norma Jean Milligan at 3329 NW 43; Topeka, Kansas 66618 Telephone: 913-286-0390 for more details. We hope you will take lots of pictures for our NEWS BULLETIN !!!

Please Help

We would like to include as many photographs as possible in our News Bulletin - not just of our ancestors (though these are our most precious) but of all YOUNKIN descendants. The next time you take your family photos in for developing, how about an extra set for the YFNB !!!!!

NOT an EXPERT on our YOUNKIN family. I have, quite simply, tried to collect as many records as I can on all of them. I have had my own line of YOUNKIN ancestors completed for a couple years. When, through this research, it appeared to me that everyone was quite possibly related - I was curious about such a unique phenomenon. This publication is just a continuance of my own curiosity and if it can assist others in finding their roots that will make it all worthwhile. Every bit of information that I have will be printed in this publication including all of the articles that appeared in the old issues of the YFNB. I now have what appears to be a COMPLETE set of the old issues. Many of you had Vol. 1 #1 - but one member had them all and was gracious enough to copy all of them for me. (thanks again George & Nancy) The hardest part of writing this issue was deciding which of these articles to include now and which had to be put off until later..

Don't be surprised if, upon first reading this issue, you become terribly confused about just who is who and where in the family tree they fit. Our family is a large one with many generations to deal with. Trust me, it will clear up after a while. I have made every effort to reproduce the historical documents in their 'exact' form - it's not my job to re-write history or to decide that what someone wrote was wrong [though, if possible, I will provide any other evidence I might have]. The onus will be on you to verify the validity of each and every item. I will be glad to make suggestions to anyone as to how they might go about this verification process - but is quite impossible for me to personally verify each line of our tree. The financial expenses are well beyond my capabilities. Those of you who are new to this hobby will be interested to know that to order a copy of just 1 Will at any courthouse costs between $5-10 [more if there are various Estate papers with it]. To order a certified birth, marriage, or death certificate costs about $10. Doing the research yourself can save you some of the expenses - you won't have to pay the Clerk of the Court for their time - but even so the copying costs are still heavy [usually 50¢ per page]. In the future, as you read through the various articles written here you will now know just how much time, energy and money has been devoted to our family by others. [makes your $12.00 subscription fee quite a bargain !]

GENES - GENES & MORE GENES

Beginning Genealogy

By Donna Younkin Logan

You have 2 parents - 4 grandparents - 8 Great Grandparents and 16 Great Great Grandparents. In those 4 generations you have 30 people to investigate & document. [That should keep you busy for a while!] What's that you say... 'your Uncle did your genealogy' - WRONG! - he did HIS genealogy. Only half of your ancestors will be related to this man. Then you need to ask yourself: How thorough was his work? Did he document his findings with specific references? Did he include all of the female lines (all too often neglected !). You are just as much a part of your Mothers Mothers Mother as you are your Fathers Fathers Father.

Begin your own research with the current generations and work your way back. Get all of the vital statistics on each known living relative. Most of you have already done just that by filling in the charts that were included with the last issue of our YFNB. Don't forget to document each entry as to the source for the information - if the source was a conversation with Aunt Mildred then say 'source for Mildred's birth was Mildred herself in a conversation we had on 5 Jan 1990'. If Mildred was the one that gave you the birth dates for her parents and all of her brothers and sisters then state that.

I can't emphasize enough the need for documentation of any ancestral findings [including all minute details, LARRY!]. 100 years from now your great grandchild should be able to take your research sheets and be able to easily find the original documents at their original location. In other words, if your found your maiden Aunt's Will at the Frederick County, Maryland courthouse in the town of Frederick, also state which WILL BOOK and all of the PAGE NUMBERS! In addition to the Will - don't forget to check with the Clerk to see if they might have other documents, as well, relating to the deceased person. Such as: Estate Administration, Inventories, Guardianship papers, Bonds, etc.

Here is another example of how important documenting your finding is:

You come across a cemetery headstone which says simply:

'Ephraim'

born: January 23, 1881

died: December 12, 1886

son of J & H YOUNKIN

You jot down the Cemetery name and location [Street address, City County, State] and include a reference (if available) to exactly where the plot is located within the cemetery). Finding out more about this child will be quite difficult as he was born after the 1880 census was taken and died before any other census could have documented his life. Now, several years later, you are browsing in a genealogical library and you stumble across a midwife's journal of births for the years 1875-1885. Entry # 68 states:

"Male child born to Hannah Younkin, wife of Jacob, was born January 23, 1881". Well, that's good enough for you. You sit down at the nearest library table and enter Ephraim as the 2nd child of Jacob and Hannah on their Family Group Sheet- and that's all there is to it. WRONG!

Don't leave the library until you have, at best, copied [on a copier] the cover page of the Journal and the entry page. At the very least, write out the birth entry [exactly as it is stated-even if the spelling is wrong] and get the midwife's name and the bibliography type information from the Journal. Now, we need to see that your Great Grandchild will be able to find this reference at the original source location 100 years from now [if the library hasn't burned down in the meantime!]. Write down the library's name and its location. Think about it - 1st of all, without the Midwife's Journal - WHERE IS YOUR PROOF of Ephraim's parentage? 2nd, what are the chances that your Great Grandchild will stumble across this same journal? She needs to know it exists!

If you ever decide to join one of the Historical Societies such as the DAR or SAR [Daughters / Sons of the American Revolution] you will need all of the documentation. If one of your relatives held a membership in one of these, don't believe that just because they were members that you will necessarily be able to join also. If their membership file does not contain viable proof of their ancestral lines then you will have to provide it. Prior to about 1950 societies such as these were rather lenient as to acceptable documentation, but this is no longer true. Each new member must substantiate their own relationship. Why do I bring up this topic? - many of you should have the ability to join as several of the YOUNKIN boys served in the Revolutionary War!

Collateral Relatives = anyone who is not a DIRECT ancestor. For example, your Father's brother. Don't make the mistake of not investigating & documenting these kissin' kin. You will often find out about your own direct ancestors through these siblings & cousins. In my 3rd Great-Grandfather, Hardin BUTLER's, obituary it stated that he was 'associated with Abraham Lincoln' - well, needless to say, I wanted to know more about this association. My 'in-depth' study of Hardin's life left me with absolutely no information regarding any connection with our famous President. It wasn't until I located a 2 vol. biography of Mr. Lincoln wherein I found that Abe was given his first job in Springfield, IL. by one William BUTLER, Clerk of the County Court. Well, this William certainly wasn't my own direct ancestor but I decided to gather as much as I could about the life of this William. In checking the Sangamon County History books there were several articles written about William and to make a long story short - this William and my Hardin turned out to be brothers. They lived quite close to each other on the outskirts of Springfield and Mr. Lincoln actually boarded [meals only] in the home of William and his wife, Elizabeth. In addition, Abe and Mary TODD were married in the BUTLER home! Hardin's association was probably based on a few dinners with Abe. Nonetheless, I was able to learn quite a bit more about my Hardin through my investigation of his brother, William's, life.

After you have gathered all the statistics you can on your siblings, parents, aunts, uncles, cousins & grandparents, you can begin your work on Great-Grandparents and their ancestors. If they are still living - interview them - get as much information as they can offer on their families. The next step is to find the documentation to substantiate the lines. Get as many birth, death & marriage certificates as possible. Each state began keeping these records on a state-wide basis at different times but most began about the turn of the century. Individual counties in each state have kept these records much longer. The new book, published by Genealogical Publishing Inc. of Baltimore, Md., INTERNATIONAL VITAL RECORDS HANDBOOK offers copies of each states applications for these certificates and applications for most foreign countries. If any of you would like copies of the forms in this book I will be happy to copy them for you- but please send a long (business size envelope) SASE and which states and/or countries you would like. I, also, have the addresses of most county courthouses in the U.S. [which is where the earlier records will be] and will be glad to send these to you, again, please send a SASE.

What's in these records? Well, each one will be different but normally you will find the following genealogical information:

Birth Certificate - child's name, date of birth, place of birth (city, county, & state), parents names (including mother's maiden name), parent's birthplaces (usually just the state but often the city and/or county also).

Death Certificate - deceased full name, birth date and place, dates & places of death and burial, cause of death, parents names (including mother's maiden name), parent's birthplaces (usually just the state but often the city and/or county also), deceased last known address, wife's name.

Marriage Certificate - both parties full names, their ages, parents names (if either party was under legal age, parental consent forms were often filed with the certificates - but you have to ask specifically for this), marital status at the time they applied for the license (widow, single, divorced, etc.), license application date and the date the marriage took place, who performed the ceremony and where.

Well, this should keep everyone busy until next time when we will delve into other resources that can be used to 'gather our families'.

The Daily Mail: Hagerstown, Maryland Tuesday March 6, 1990 SEBRING, Fla. — Roy Calvin Younkens, 71, of Sebring and formerly of Hagerstown, died Thursday, March 1, at Highlands Regional Medical Center in Sebring.

He was born in Middletown, Md.

He retired in 1981 as a mechanic from Potomac Edison Co., after 36 years of service.

He was a veteran of World War II, having served in the U.S. Army.

He was a member of the Church of the Nazarene of Sebring. He is survived by his wife, Mary V. Younkens; three sisters, Agnes Moser of Boonsboro, Edna Toms of Middletown, and Mae Recher of Hagerstown; one brother, Edwin Younkens of Boonsboro; and one niece.

Services were held Monday, March 5, at the Stephenson-Nelson Funeral Home Chapel in Sebring. The Rev. James Bailey officiated. Burial was made in Lakeview Memorial Gardens. [Roy C.4, William Edward3, John W.S.2, John & Sarah (FISH) YOUNKIN1]

The Salina Journal: Salina Kansas — Lucille M. Pierce, 78, 1512 Osborne, were held at 10 a.m. Friday at the Ryan Mortuary, the Rev. Harry Tysen officiating. Burial was in the Highland Cemetery, Junction City.

Mrs. Pierce died Monday, Jan. 22, 1990, at Asbury-Salina Regional Medical Center.

She was born Lucille M. Younkens on Dec. 3, 1911, in Junction City and had been a Salina resident since 1937, moving from Junction City. She had owned and operated several businesses in Salina including Edgewood Riding Stables, The Pierce Motel, Pierce's Carpet and Upholstery and later Pierce's Carpet Warehouse. She was a member of the University United Methodist Church, American Business Womens Association, Lady Elks and Ladies of the Moose. She had done volunteer work for the Red Cross, St. John's Hospital and Asbury.

Her first husband, Kenneth A. Parkhurst, died in 1965; and her second husband, John R. Pierce, died in 1977.

Survivors include her mother, Mildred M. Younkens of Junction City; her sister, Mildred Anderson of 409 S. 11th; and a nephew, Robert Parkhurst of 521 W. South.

The Tiller and Toiler: Larned, Kansas, Wednesday, March 7, 1990 — Donald John Younkens 95 died March 7 at St. Joseph Memorial Hospital, Larned. He was born Oct. 7 1894 in a sod house in Rush County, KS., the son of Will E. and Mary Jane (Honderick) Younkens. He married Ellen Quigley June 1, 1924 at Great Bend, KS. Donald was a retired rural school teacher in Barton County and a retired farmer of Barton and Pawnee Counties. He was a member of the United Methodist Church, Masonic Lodge both of Larned, Consistory of Wichita, Garfield American Legion, and a Veteran of World War I.

He was preceded in death by his parents, brothers; Ralph E., William, and Harold. Sisters; Clara, Florence, and Marietta. Survivors: Wife of the home, daughters; Mrs. Lawrence (Janice) Schneck Jr., of Larned, Mrs. Ralph (Carolee) Vinson, Oneida, IL. Mrs. Dale (Donna) Atkeson, Haysville, KS. brothers; Willis H., Alamo, TX., Charles W., Lake Placid, FL.; five grandsons, five granddaughters and eight great grandsons.

Funeral services were held 11:00 a.m. Saturday March 10th at Beckwith Mortuary, with Rev. Leroy Smoot presiding. Burial was in the Larned Cemetery with Military Graveside rites. Memorials have been established to the United Methodist Church, Larned. [see photograph and article on separate page]

I.M.A.Y. by Larry L. Logan

If there is one characteristic of the YOUNKIN family blood-line that really stands out, it is their inability to pay attention to details. Now, I can only base this on my own personal experiences with my particular YOUNKIN and her sisters...and her Dad... and her Grandparents... and every other YOUNKIN I've had the pleasure to meet. And, Maybe this is not true for your particular YOUNKIN... (but, I really doubt that). In fact, if you do have a YOUNKIN that does "pay attention to details", I would certainly like to meet them. We can carefully check their genealogical charts, and we'll probably find out that they're not really YOUNKINS.

(Before I go too much further, I must remind you that this column is only for people who married YOUNKINS. If you missed the first issue of this newsletter, your excused. If you do happen to be a YOUNKIN - you just STOP READING THIS COLUMN IMMEDIATELY! For the rest of us - please continue.)

Where was I ... oh yes, attention to details. I would not try to discuss this issue with your YOUNKIN. They will just try to deny it. Then, they'll tell you that they don't have the problem; that it's really your problem. And finally, they will change the subject on you and start talking about your faults, none of which have anything to do with "paying attention to details". Why, ten minutes in your "discussion", your YOUNKIN will have completely forgotten what started the conversation in the first place. Not that it matters - those are just the details. I think you know what I'm talking about.

I do not want to address this issue just on the basis of my own personal opinions. Through the careful study of genealogy, the facts will speak for themselves. And those particular facts deal with the very name: YOUNKIN. If some of the early YOUNKINS who came to America had just paid attention to details, their name would not have gotten as screwed-up as it is today.

You see, the first American YOUNKINS came from Germany as JUNGHEN. They spelled their name with a "J", not a "Y". No one knows when this occurred exactly, but it probably happened when the first JUNGHEN was checking in at immigration. (Remember, their English was probably "niche so gut". Also, as is true with YOUNKINS even today, they were in a big hurry - probably to get to the shopping malls they heard about in New York City). It might have gone something like this:

Immigration Office: "Yes sir, and what is your name please?"
1st JUNGHEN: "My name ist JUNKEN."
Immigration Office: "and how do you spell that sir?"
1st JUNGHEN: "My name ist JUNKEN."
Immigration Office: "O.K. sir, I see we've been practicing our English on the boat."

1st JUNGHEN: "Ja." (which in German is pronounced YAH).

Immigration Office: "O.K. sir, do you happen to know what the first letter of your name is...you know, A...B...C...D..."

1st JUNGHEN: "Ja. Ver ist die shopping mall - must hurry."

Immigration Office: "No sir, is the first letter of your name a 'J' or a 'Y'?"

1st JUNGHEN: "Ja"

Immigration Office: "Ja, huh, well that sounds more like a 'Y' than a 'J'. Is your last name spelled with a 'Y'?"

1st JUNGHEN: "Ja, a 'Y'. Y dis taking soo long?"

Immigration Office: "Just a second sir. I'm going to write out your name and if it's correct, I want you to sign your name at the bottom of this form. Y-O-U-N-K-I-N."

(the first JUNGHEN glances at the page, and signs the form)

1st JUNGHEN; who is now the 1st YOUNKIN: "Dis take soo long, me got my shots."

Immigration Office: "We're just about done sir. Now, what is your occupation?"

1st YOUNKIN: "Ja."

Immigration Office: "No, what is your job? Your work?"

1st YOUNKIN: "Ja. Work hard. Strong like ox."

Immigration Office: "O.K. Younkin, I'll be back with you after I get some coffee."

1st YOUNKIN: "Ja. Coffee! Amerika! Golden Streets! New York! Times Square!"

All he had to do was take a moment to read the form, and the name could have started out correctly. But that's a "detail".

Also, there is the matter of the YOUNKIN people and the YOUNKINS people — with an 'S'. They are all in the same family, but some have 'S' on the end, and others are just plain YOUNKIN.

This probably happened a generation or two later, most likely when a deed had to be registered at the courthouse. (This was probably in western Pennsylvania or West Virginia):

Clerk of the Court: "Yes sir, Mr. Younkin, you are here to deed your property."

YOUNKIN: "Shore am"

Clerk of the Court: "How do you spell your name?"

YOUNKIN: "Well, Granddaddy said it was with a 'Y'."

Clerk of the Court: "O.K., and is that YOUNKIN with an 'S' on the end or without?"

YOUNKIN: "You know, I am in kinda a hurry. An 'S' on the end means more than one, don't it?"

Clerk of the Court: "Yes, it does."

YOUNKIN: "Well, I got my brother and my wife, and my hog out in the wagon, so I guess we the YOUNKINS."

And so on... you know what I'm talking about. You can go read the rest of the YOUNKIN'S NEWSLETTER now. If some of the details seem missing, or some details seem to be in the wrong places, you'll just have to bear with me. My wife prepared the rest of the paper, and I.M.A.Y.

LETTERS TO 'I.M.A.Y.' LARRY

"when our boys were quite small - upon entering school the teacher immediately assigned them a front row seat in case they behaved like their older brothers and sisters. This little kid is now faced with the problem of living up to the reputation of his older siblings and always came thru with shining colors.

There is a rumor in our little town high school that one of the teachers after having Younkin children for six years in a row was granted early retirement for mental fatigue!", Tom Younkin, Ashland, OH

Junghen Family in Bucks County - Part 2

This article was provided to the YFNB by Laurel Posey of Ca. It is a reprint of an article that appeared in Vol 1 #1 of the original YFNB published Christmas 1937. Part 1 may be found in Vol. 1 # 1 pub. Jan 1990 - [In the last issue I, as a novice editor/publisher, neglected to give proper credit to this article's original author, Anita L. Eyster, my sincere apology]

In connection with the arrival of Herman's brother, JOHANN HEINRICH JUNGHEN, in 1750, we might pause to comment on the really astonishing way in which the immigrants contrived to keep in touch with the mother country in those days when a slow sailing vessel was the only means of communication. Each ship that unloaded at Philadelphia (and between 1750 and 1755 there were 85 ships came in with German immigrants), went back with messages and commissions and often took back those men who had planned their dwelling places and were returning for their families. Some such reason must have stirred Henry Junghen, for within a year of his arrival he advertises in the German paper[1] that he is going back and will take letters. He is described as a single man in Tinicum. This simple phrase gives us a deal of information. First, that he went at once on arrival to his brother Herman in Tinicum; second, that his wife was dead, undoubtedly before he left Germany; third, that he had the means to pay his passage back and forth. We also infer that his home was Siegen in Hesse.

But Henry Junghen did not stay long abroad and coming back to Bucks County he bought a large tract of over 200 acres in the townships of Bedminster and Haycock. Here he brought a wife, Catharine Scherer, in 1756, and raised a family of four sons and two daughters. Since this was his second marriage, it was rendered possible that his daughter Elizabeth should later marry the grandson of his brother Herman, her first cousin once removed, thus establishing a double connection with the Haupt family.

Henry's son by his first marriage, JOHN JUNGHEN, left behind in Germany, came over in 1754. We have little information concerning him but we may suppose that he was 16 years old when he arrived and 21 when he married Catharine Killicher in 1759. He is mentioned as the oldest son in his father's will in 1787, but we have no further notice of him except the baptism of a son George in 1766. He therefore went to Somerset County at an early date. Jacob Junghen, the second son of Henry, followed him. Jacob married Hannah Nicola and he was enrolled in a Militia Company in Bucks County as late as 1782, but so far as we know, his children were born in Somerset County.

The sons at home when Henry died in 1787 were therefore Frederick, Rudolph and Henry, the latter still a minor. Their father directed in his will that the sons should share the land, that Frederick should have the Homestead in Tinicum and take care of his mother and sisters. But Frederick married and then lost his wife, and in 1790 he sold his land to his brother Rudolph and followed his brothers to Somerset, leaving behind an infant son, also named Frederick, probably in his mother's care. After the same manner, the other brothers disposed of their lands and left the County. Rudolph going to Perry County, Ohio, and Henry to Loudon County, Virginia. This left none to carry on the family of Henry Junghen in Bucks County except the little son of Frederick, born 1789, who became a millwright and died in 1838, leaving a large family.

In the family of Herman Junghen there were six sons and of these only one remained in Bucks County. This was John Junghen, the oldest son, who married Anna Maria Essig in 1771, and had three sons and four daughters. Of these, the oldest, Nicholas, remained on part of the original property in Nockamixon and from him are descended most of those of the name Youngken now in Bucks County. His brothers moved over into Northampton County, Michael being unmarried and Abraham marrying Elisabeth Hauser. This accounts for some off the Easton people.

Of the other sons of Herman Junghen, the second, Abraham, married Elisabeth Wyker and died in 1790, leaving a son Abraham who eventually removed to Washington County, Ohio; his wife was named Sarah. Of the third, fourth and fifth sons, Daniel, George and Herman, we know little more than is contained in Herman Junghen's Will. However, George's wife was Elizabeth Bollinger and in 1811, he was living in Chillasque Township, Northumberland County. The youngest son, Killian, child of the second marriage, also went to Ohio.

The family of Peter Youngken seem to have been a different line, especially in view of the fact that their first names are dissimilar from the original Bucks County line. Peter may have been of the JUNCKEN family who came to Philadelphia in 1753, but so far as we know, they did not leave Philadelphia County. But even if Peter Youngken could be proved to be of the Philadelphia Juncken family, his descent would not fall within the scope of this paper, whose purpose is to trace the Pioneers in Bucks County.

Herman Junghen is undoubtedly buried at the Nockamixon Lutheran Church, where he was a trustee and active member. Henry Junghen has a perfectly legible stone at Keller's Church, in Bedminster Township and here also is the grave of his wife, who outlived him nearly 40 years and died at the age of 99 years.

A Revolutionary record on the Oath of Allegiance has been established for both these Pioneers, making their descendants eligible to Patriotic Societies.

No references have been included here but proofs are to be found in Church Records and in documents found in the Bucks County Courthouse in Doylestown

[Many of you have seen the above history, but I would venture that few of you have seen the following letter written by Anita to the Publisher, Charles Younkin, wherein we are given an explanation of her interest in the JUNGHEN/YOUNKIN family]

LETTER FROM ANITA L. EYSTER

Philadelphia, PA., April 10, 1941

Dear Mr. Younkin,

I have received your letter and I am certainly sorry to hear that you are laid up. I am afraid that you have always worked too hard. Undoubtedly you have done a tremendous work in getting up the whole Younkin history as you have. I wish I had something that could be of use to you in the News Bulletin but I know of nothing that would help. Of course my personal interest in the family stops with the death of my great grandfather's wife, Elisabeth YOUNGKEN, in 1831. I covered pretty well the Bucks County families and have done nothing further on them. The Peter Younken line is I am sure, no connection.

I hope you are working in some other member of the line to be your assistant. My activities in the past few years have been largely in lines far removed and not often amongst the German element. Really genealogical work is very slow at present and when I have no very active clients I busy myself with research in Philadelphia and nearby. I live very quietly since my children are all married and out of the city but I have a comfortable house and few cares and I take life easy and try to view approaching old age with equanimity. In other words, I am resting on my laurels and perhaps that is what you should be doing too.

I wish you every success with the next number of the Bulletin and if it were possible would gladly be of help to you.

With kind regards, believe me
very sincerely yours,
Anita L. Eyster

SOME OF OUR OLD FOLKS

TOTAL YEARS OF THESE PEOPLE

451

In the article which follows a brief story of the old YOUNKIN folks, whose photos appear in this issue of the Bulletin will be given to begin they are all that are left living, (of the fourth generation) of Johan Henrich Junghen, or Younkin, the Pioneer of 1753, it is the aim of the writer to give definite dates as near as is possible to do so with but few exceptions it is being done. Henry [Henrich] Junghen or Younkin was a widower when he arrived in America in 1753, with a son Ernest Junghen, who supposedly died a short time later, as he never was heard from again. In 1754 another son arrived in America, John Junghen, of the descendants of the last named son, will make mention at a later date through columns of the Bulletin, after a stay of a few years in Philadelphia, PA., port of arrival, Henry migrates to Bucks County, PA. where in 1756 he purchased a farm, and in the same year married Catherine SCHERER.

Henry died in 1787 he is buried in the grave yard at Kellers Church, the gravestone reading, 'Geboren January 31, 1717'. Jacob, oldest son of second marriage was born about 1757, he married Hannah NICOLA in 1785 and shortly after moved to Somerset County, PA. where he died 1811, and is buried near Kingwood, PA.

The following are the names of the descendants of Jacob and Hannah Younkin: John, Henry, Elizabeth, Samuel, Catherine, Abraham, Jonas, Isaac and Polly. It would take too much space to give you a complete historical story of the descendants of Jacob and Hannah Younkin, will omit all except, direct ancestry of persons whose photos appear in this paper. Jonas or Dr. Jonas Younkin, who was born in Somerset County, married Martha PRINKEY and went West when a young man, he is buried near Nichols, Iowa. [editors note - I have been unable to find a burial place in the Nichols area to date for our Dr. Jonas - he is last found in the 1880 census living with his youngest son, Austin, in Columbus Junction, Louisa County, IA., D.Y.L.] Dates of birth and death, are not now available. Among the descendants of Jonas and Martha Younkin, were Dr. Edwin, a famous surgeon of St. Louis, MO. Several years ago, Archibald, a lawyer of San Diego, CA., he also has been dead a number of years, his widow died in 1936 near 102 years of age. A daughter, Mrs. Emily HOWE, died a few years ago in Omaha, NE., others of this family have passed on, but there still lives one son of Dr. Jonas Younkin, the venerable Aaron Younkin, of Lincoln, NE. who was born July 31, 1845. [Editors note: his photo appeared in the last issue, D.Y.L.]

Rudolph (Ralph) Younkin second son of Henry and Catherine (Scherer) Younkin, was born about 1759 in Bucks County, PA. he married Elizabeth HOCKMAN, perhaps about 1780. A few years later moved to Perry County, OH., where he lived the remainder of his life. He is buried near Corning, OH., he wife, Elizabeth died May 24, 1831, and is buried there also. Of the several descendants of Rudolph and Elizabeth, will only speak of two, namely John and Samuel. John was born July 27, 1791, he married Margaret TROUT in 1820, he lived his entire life in Perry County, OH. and is buried near Corning, OH. Fourteen children were born to John and Margaret Younkin, of these only one is living, the grand old man Isaac Younkin, of Burlington, KS. who was 98 years of age April 21, 1938, and is today the oldest known living Younkin in the U.S.A. A brother and sister, the Famous Younkin Twins having died in 1937, in their 93rd year.

Samuel Younkin, son of Rudolph and Elizabeth, was born November 2, 1797, near Harpers Ferry, his wife was Catherine GODLOVE. She was born March 3, 1797. He moved to Iowa in 1844, and lived there the last years of his life. He died July 15, 1895. Several children were born to Samuel and Catherine Younkin, of these all are dead, except one, the venerable old Dr. George Younkin of Riverside, IA. who was born September 5, 1846, a brother, John F. Younkin, also of Riverside, having died August 1937, age 96.

Frederick Younkin, third son of Henry and Catherine Younkin, was born in Bucks County, PA. in 1763. He first married Barbara DEITER, perhaps 3 or 4 children were born to them. Barbara died a few years after marriage, after his wife's death presumably about 1785, 1790, he came to Somerset County, he again married. His second wife was Catherine PATTON [Editors note: part of the next sentence is unreadable on my copy, D.Y.L.]..... was married a second time, before or after coming to Somerset County, at least one son to his first marriage remained in Bucks County possibly being taken care of by his grandmother. A record of his accidental death is recorded in Bucks County Intelligencer, Nov. 6, 1838. Several children were born to wife of second marriage, will only mention one, Frederick F. Younkin, who was born in Somerset County, PA., in 1801. Fred F. married and went West, four children were born to first marriage. He having gone West, his wife having died a few years later, after her death, he came back to Somerset County, where he again married, several children were born, all being dead, except Henry Younkin, who was born in 1853. He being 85 years of age, living near Rockwood, PA.

Henry Younkin fourth son of Henry and Catherine, was born in Bucks County, PA. October 9, 1768. He married Anna Marie — he was living in Easton, Northampton County, PA. in 1832. A few years later came to near Brush Valley, Indiana County, PA. where he purchased a farm, where he lived the remaining years of his life. He died July 20, 1859, and is buried in Dutch Bethel graveyard, near Brush Valley, Indiana County, PA. Several children were born to Henry and Anna Maria Younkin. Will at this time omit all excepting Aaron, who was born perhaps in Northampton County January 17, 1819. He married Mary GEORGE he died June 7, 1888. Several children were born to Aaron and Mary Younkin, all are now dead, except one daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth (Younkin) McNUTT, living in Indiana, Indiana County, PA. She was born December 21, 1852, age 85 years, this terminates for the time being our story which we hope has been made plain to you all. Our main object in giving this to you, was to prove to you seemingly impossible facts, which are only too true. I dare say this is not to be found in any other family group. Fourth generation extending over a period of 221 years, and they are all second cousins.

MRS. ELLEN SCHROCK

Mrs. Ellen Schrock, 79 years old, died of a heart attack Friday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Della Schrock, of Brookvale.

Mrs. Schrock was a daughter of the late Jacob and Lucy (WEIMER) YOUNKIN. She was born at Kingwood, Somerset County, and lived there until 10 years ago when she came to Connellsville to make her home with her daughter. She was a member of the Church of God at Kingwood and during her residence here had attended the United Brethren Church.

She was the wife of Ephraim SCHROCK, who preceded her in death 18 years ago. She was the mother of 10 children eight of whom survive. They are Della SCHROCK of Brookvale, Mrs. Anna CRAMER, and Mrs. Elva SEMBOWER of Somerset, Mrs. W.G. SNYDER and Mrs. H.P. MILLER of Kingwood, George SCHROCK of Johnstown, Harold SCHROCK of Uniontown and Ira SCHROCK of Sacramento, CA. She is also survived by a brother, W. D. YOUNKIN of Kingwood, 11 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

The funeral will be held Monday afternoon. After a prayer at the Brookvale home at 12:30 o'clock the cortege will go to the Kingwood Church of God where the service will be conducted. Rev. E.A. Shultz, pastor of the United Brethren Church, assisted by Rev. J. I. Kalp, pastor of the Kingwood Church of God, will officiate. In charge of Funeral Charles C. Mitchell, Interment will be in Kingwood I.O.O.F. Cemetery.

NOTES FROM SULLIVAN COUNTY, PA.
AND VICINITY
REUNION AT DUSHORE, PA
SUNDAY, AUG. 11, 1940

The YONKIN Reunion was a well attended happy gathering held at Penn's Grove near Dushore. August 11th 1940. The day was ideal and a delicious dinner was served at noon to over 100 members by the ladies.

Levi B. YONKIN, of Dushore was the oldest member present and Sarah Ann TOUSCHNER, daughter of Mr. and Mrs Ivan TOUSCHNER of Williamsport, PA. was the youngest present. Officers were elected for 1941 followed with singing by Viola MILLER. There also were four generations present at the gathering: John H. YONKIN, great grandfather; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur YONKIN, grandfather and grandmother; Ann Marie YONKIN TOUSCHNER, parents of 14 month Sarah Ann TOUSCHNER. The most of the day was spent in visiting. The next meeting being the 42nd reunion will be held the 2nd Sunday in August in Penn's Grove, near Dushore.

JOSEPHITE'S RITES SLATED

Mass to be offered Tuesday for Father Youngkin

A requiem mass for the Rev. Edwin F. Youngkin, S.S.J., a veteran of many years in the Josephite missions, will be offered at 10:A.M. Tuesday in St. Pius V Catholic Church, 523 North Schroeder Street.

Father Youngkin died Friday in Jenkins Memorial Hospital after a prolonged illness. He was 77.

Born January 9, 1889, in Brooklyn, N.Y., Father Youngkin was educated first in Holy Name School, Brooklyn, before entering Epiphany Apostolic College, the Josephite minor seminary then located in Walbrook.

Studied in Baltimore

He made his philosophical and theological studies at St. Joseph's and St. Mary's seminaries, Baltimore. He was ordained at the Catholic University of America, Washington, by the late Bishop Thomas J. Shanan, rector of Catholic University, in 1919.

Father Youngkin spent his entire missionary career on the Josephite missions in Alabama, Florida, Louisiana, Mississippi and Tennessee. His last assignment was at the Josephite mission in Winnsboro, LA., from which he was forced to retire in 1953 because of ill health.

of the immigrant, Johann Heinrich 'Henry' JUNGHEN. There are several other entries where our JUNGHEN/YOUNKIN families stood Sponsor for a baptism, but these were the two most important entries for our interests. Over the years there has been much controversy between researchers as to whether or not Rudolph was the same person that was often called 'Ralph'. The descendants of 'Ralph' have many documents wherein their ancestor is called 'Ralph' but none with the name Rudolph until now. Thanks to the 'detective work' of Rev. Newton Poling of Hagerstown, MD. we have the above church record. Given this, and the Family Bible Records in possession of Joseph's great grandchild, Glenn Younkin of Springfield, IL., we can clearly see that they were one in the same! Joseph's bible was published by Sumner and Goodman in 1846. Joseph's birth is recorded as:

*Joseph Younkin
born August 24th 1806
Susan Meek
born March 20th 1810*

I had hoped to have a story on the life and descendants of Rudolph prepared for this issue, but the Ohio County Court-houses have not cooperated with my deadline. I am still awaiting their response to my request for the 'Estate Administration' for Rudolph/Ralph which I am hoping will give us the remaining names of his children. I apologize for this delay but with or without this puzzle piece I will, in the next issue, have Rudolph's story.

Meet: John Deitz Younkin

John was 6 Oct 1837 in Hamilton Co., OH. as the son of Samuel and Rachel (Deitz) Younkin. John enrolled in the Civil War at Indianapolis, IN. on the 10th day of Sept. 1864 as a private in Company E 135th Regt. Indiana Infantry. He was discharged 21 Sept. 1864 as a private in Co. A 7th Regt. Indiana Vols. At enlistment his physical description was: 5 ft. 3 1/2 in. tall, light complexion, blue eyes, and light colored hair. His occupation at this time was that of 'Potter'.

John applied for a pension on 10 Oct 1907 at which time he stated that his residences since his service had been: Lafayette, IN.; Beatrice, NE.; Rush Co., KS; & Great Bend, KS.

One of the most valuable papers in John's Pension file was a notarized copy of Samuel and Rachel's family birth records:

Samuel Younkin and Rachel Deitz were married on 22 May 1819.

Samuel was born 18 Aug 1797

Rachel was born 5 Dec 1800

Their Children:

Andrew J. was born 25 Mar 1821

Dorothy Ann was born 3 Jan 1823

Elisabeth was born 1 Mar 1825

Syrus [sic] was born 3 Jul 1826

Roxylenea was born 27 Oct 1828

Benjamin Franklin was born 18 Jun 1831

Manerva was born 7 Mar 1833

Samuel was born 13 Jun 1835

John was born 6 Oct 1837 (our pensioner)

The notary certified that this was a true copy of the bible printed in the year A.D. 1834 for the American Bible Society.

John married Marietta Victoria King in 1862 and had 7 children: Willie Elsworth, Clarence Lincoln, Jennie Deitz, Samuel DeWitte, John King, Charles Franklin & Marietta Adora. John's wife, Marietta, died 6 Mar 1906 and he married on 1 Dec 1906 to Charity M. Howard (Charity's maiden name was Smith - she was the widow of Thomas J. Howard who died in 1883 and she was also the widow of James Henderson who died in 1855). John died 26 Oct 1932.

The Much-married Miner and Younkin Family-by Mark A. Miner

In the April 30, 1938, edition of the YOUNKIN FAMILY NEWS BULLETIN, publisher Charles A. Younkin made a matrimony promise, of sorts. He wrote: "In future issues, we hope to tell you much of the inter-married families [including]...the Younkin and Miner."

But the promise was not fulfilled, for reasons that are not yet known. Although several more editions of the Bulletin were published after 1938, little about the much-married Miner and Younkin families ever made it into print. This is unfortunate, because there were at least five weddings of the two clans in the 1800s. A published review of these couples would have been very useful to family researchers then — and now.

Publisher Younkin would have had a keen interest in the topic himself because he was a twice-removed product of such a marriage. His paternal great-grandparents were Leonard and Martha (Miner) Harbaugh. As well, the author of this article is the product of two of the marriages: Jacob and Catherine (Younkin) Miner, married circa 1802; and their son, Henry, who married Mary Polly Younkin in the 1830s.

Why the Miner and Younkin families were so intermingled is not precisely known, but some evidence does exist. Both apparently had common German origins — the original spelling of Miner was "Meinhard," later shortened to "Miner," while the original spelling of Younkin was "Junghen." Both families settled and grew in the late 1790s and early 1800s on farms near Kingwood, Somerset County, Pa., and in some cases were next-door neighbors. Census, deed and estate records show that Miner and Younkin names abound.

Below is a list of five known 19th-century marriages and their offspring. Individuals' names are spelled as they would have been during their adult lives.

- Catherine Younkin (1787-1847), daughter of John and Catherine (Killicher) Younkin. She married Jacob Miner (1780-1842) in about 1802. They lived on a 500-acre farm near Kingwood. Their children were:
 1. John Miner (married #1 Sarah Ansell, 6 children; m.#2 Hannah Ansell)
 2. Burket Miner (m. Susan Hartzell)
 3. Henry (m. Mary Polly Younkin, more later)
 4. Laura Miner (m. John M. Younkin, more later)
 5. Jacob Miner (m. Rachel Ansell, one daughter)
 6. Charles Miner (m. Adaline Harbaugh, 9 ch.)
 7. Catherine Miner (m. Harrison Barnhouse, 5+ch.)
 8. Joel Miner (m.#1 Margaret J. Leighliter, m.#2 Catherine Seneff, 5 ch.)
 9. Eli Miner (m. Mary Ann Baer, 6 ch.)
- Henry Miner (1809-?), son of Jacob and Catherine (Younkin) Miner. He married Mary Polly Younkin (1810-?), whose parents are unknown. Wed in the 1830s, they left Kingwood about 1852 and ultimately settled in Greene County, Pa. where they died. Their children were:
 1. John Miner
 2. Ephraim Miner (m.#1 Joanna Younkin, ; m.#2 Rosetta Harbaugh, more later)
 3. Chance Miner (m. Martha J. Jones, 4 ch.)
 4. Harrison Miner
 5. Susanna Miner (m. Samuel A. Birch, 9 ch.)
 6. Jacob Miner (died in infancy)
 7. Andrew J. Miner (m. Mary Louise Johnston, 4 ch., ancestor of author)
 8. Nancy Minor (m. Spencer Farabee, 8 ch.)
 9. Catherine Miner (m. John Bedillion, 5 ch.)
 10. Sarah A. Miner (m. Fred Kreger)
 11. Elias Minor (m. Elizabeth King, 5 sons)
- Laura Miner (1813-bef 1880), daughter of Jacob and Catherine (Younkin) Miner. She married John M. Younkin, (1803-aft 1880), son of Jacob and Eleanor Younkin. They were married about 1832 and lived near Kingwood. Their children were:
 1. Charles Younkin (m. Sarah)
 2. Mary Younkin

NINETY YEARS! CAN IT BE TRUE?

Many were happy and few were blue
Sod house is my memory first.
I'm sure it can't be called the worst.
Next in line of bygone years mark my word
It can be remembered but need not be heard.
Twelve years I lend myself to books, matriculated
Finally I find myself in a country school
'Twas my duty to teach and to rule.
The Army then called and I didn't shirk,
When it was over I returned to school and to work.
In teaching it happened a girl I found —
My judgement in this was very sound.
It was wonderful for a youth of twenty-eight
Even if she said you have a year to wait.
Her wishes were good she said "I liked the farm."
Times were tough but it caused us no harm.
We found a farm that needed a home.
This caused us to buy and not to roam.
Six years we worked and a little girl we found.
What a blessing it was to have one around.
Two more girls were added in time —
More blessings I can't think of for this old rhyme
Time came and we had to retire
From a lovely home that we came to admire.
Years flew by and we were called to celebrate
Fifty years of wedded fate.
The girls planned this day with care
And many came with friendship to share.
With ten grandchildren we can relate
And two great grands we are pleased to state
And sixty years to celebrate with mother past eighty and Dad hits ninety
This is elation beyond our estimation.

Ephraim Miner (1839-1921), son of Henry and Mary Polly (Younkin) Miner. His first wife was Joanna Younkin (1846-1875), daughter of Herman and Susan (Faidley) Younkin. They were married after the Civil War and lived near Kingwood. Their children were:

1. William Lincoln Miner (not married)
2. Freeman Grant Miner (not married)

Ephraim later married Rosetta Harbaugh and had three more children: John Andrew, Harry David, and Minnie Edna Miner.

Lucinda Harbaugh (1856-1940), granddaughter of Leonard and Martha (Minerd) Harbaugh, and daughter of David and Mary Magdalena (Whipkey) Harbaugh. She married William Dayton Younkin (1857-1910), son of George A. and Charlotte (Younkin) Younkin. Married in the 1870s, they lived near Mill Run, Fayette County, Pa. Their children were:

1. Laura Bell Younkin (m. Jacob Shroyer, 8 ch.)
2. Charles Arthur Younkin, original YFNB publisher (m. Saloma Hall, 5 ch.)
3. George Osborn Younkin (m. Verona Matiben)
4. Viola R. Younkin (m. J.E. Mountain)
5. Ira David Younkin (m. Clara Jeffries, 2 ch.)
6. James Franklin (m. Ida Berkholder, 4 ch.)
7. Wilmer Dayton Younkin (died in infancy)
8. William Gustin Younkin (m. Elizabeth Logan)
9. Charlotte Magdalena Younkin (m. #1 Patrick Doyle, 2 ch.; m. #2 Benton L. Showman)
10. Warren Dempsey Younkin (m. Prudence Albright, 6 ch.)

There may be no better example of the Miner/ Younkin connection than the individuals in this photograph. Counterclockwise, from top: Ephraim Miner and wife Rosetta; and Andrew J. Miner and wife Mary Louise. Ephraim and Andrew were brothers; their mother was Mary Polly (Younkin) Miner, and their grandmother was Catherine (Younkin) Minerd. Ephraim's first wife was Joanna Younkin; his second wife, shown here, coincidentally was an aunt of Charles A. Younkin, publisher of the original Younkin Family News Bulletin.

Younkin Family News Bulletin

A Tribute to Our Family

Volume 1, Number 3

July, August, September 1990

Donna Younkin Logan, publisher

Dear Cousins,

The new YOUNKIN FAMILY NEWS BULLETIN is now 6 months old. Our subscribers number 122 — but most importantly our subscribers have 'jumped on the band wagon' and are sending in their family histories, bible records, photographs, obituaries and many other family records. These records have helped numerous descendants to trace their own family lines back. A case in point: the first subscription I received for our newsletter was from Dale YOUNKIN of Davenport, Iowa. Dale could only go back as far as his great-grandfather who was only remembered as 'Franklin' YOUNKIN. Dale's grandfather was named Edmund. Based on Franklins' close location to Iowa City, it was my opinion that he might belong to Dr. Jonas YOUNKIN's family in some way. In checking the census records for Iowa (provided by subscriber Laurel Posey) I could not come up with a 'Franklin' that would be the proper age. I did find a census record for an 'Orlando F. YOUNKIN' that would have been about the right age. A later census search revealed an "O.F. YOUNKIN" with a son, Eddie, that was born the same month and year as Dale's Grandfather. The only other facts Dale had that would assist in his quest was that his great-grandmother was named "Katherine (WEYMER)" and that Franklin and Katherine had been divorced sometime after 1900. Dale decided to check at the local courthouse to see if there were any records that would show Franklin's 'legal' name, supposing that he may have 'gone by' his middle name. BINGO — a divorce decree was found showing the names Orlando Franklin & S.[arah] Katherine YOUNKIN. Dale wrote recently "thank you so much for your efforts on my behalf. I am so glad to finally know the facts about my ancestors that I have wondered about for so long..." — I, in turn, thank all of you who sent in enough records for me to be able to help Dale and others. Oh yes, Dale is of the Dr. Jonas YOUNKIN family — Orlando was the son of Uriah, Uriah being the son of Dr. Jonas!

My only regret, with this project, is the cousins we have missed. I have come to realize that based on the fact that many of the families today have a copy of only Vol. 1 #1 of the original YFNB — Charles Younkin, the publisher, must have done exactly what I did — sent a free issue to everyone he could find. It may be supposed that the families that chose not to subscribe — have only this one issue (it is doubtful that future issues would have been thrown away). This was such a tragedy — as the later issues were RICH in our family history — descendants from all over the country sent in their family data and photographs for publication. With the average

I Love Company especially when they are YOUNKIN COUSINS ...

Last week I had a visit from two YOUNKIN brothers. Dr. Charles Robert 'Bob' Younkin of Houston, TX. and his brother, John Eli YOUNKIN of Charleston, SC. Both gentlemen have retired in recent years and are enjoying traveling about this summer. They were on their way to visit family in Harrisburg, Pa. when they decided my home was on the way [I sure am glad I live in between PA. and SC. !] John's daughter, Elaine Younkin Clark of West Linn, OR., had spent a number of years researching her YOUNKIN ancestors. John's wife is the former Sara HUSBAND (theirs wasn't the first YOUNKIN/ HUSBAND marriage!). Other names in their ancestry are: GARLITS/PRINGEY/HENRY/HARTZELL/TANNEHILL /SHELKEY/ JOHNSTON to name a few. Bob remembers when Charles A. Younkin (publisher of the original YFNB) came to visit at their home in Connellsville when he was just a boy of 14-15, "he must have been 300 lb. or close to it, and I asked my father afterwards what he wanted. Dad said he wanted money to help research the YOUNKIN heritage, then he laughed and said "... I know enough of Devil Jake, Drunken John, etc., I don't see any reason to check them out but I gave him $20.00, at least it will give him something to do." — thank goodness your Dad was a 'old softy', guys — or we might never have had those old YFNBS !

From SOMERSET COUNTY To IOWA & MISSOURI

John YOUNKIN was born about 1793 in Bedford County, Pennsylvania, in the area that became Somerset County, Pennsylvania in 1795. He was the son of Frederick and Catherine (PATTON) YOUNKIN and grandson of Johann Heinrich JUNGHEIN / YOUNKIN. John married Kathleen "Kate" Jane CONNELLY, born 1791 in Ireland, the daughter of Bernard and Elizabeth (EGGLETON / ECCLINGTON) CONNELLY.

John and Jane had 8 children all born in Somerset County, Pennsylvania: Kate born 1817, married in 1826 to John SHOEMAKER; Rebecca (Elizabeth?) who married a CREAMER/KREAMER; Jane born about 1820, married Jerry LANNING; Moses born 1820, married in 1850 to Frances TURNER; Agnes born about 1826, married in 1848 to Bertrand James JONES; Pertenah born 1826, married in 1846 to Calvin CARSON and after her husband's death married to Joseph MARTIN; Alexander born 1829, married in 1856 to Elizabeth JOHNSON and Rosabelle born 1832, married in 1851 to Thomas LARWOOD.

Around 1845, John, his wife and children migrated to Wapello County, Iowa near Agency City. He was accompanied by the families of his two eldest daughters Kate SHOEMAKER and Rebecca (Elizabeth?) CREAMER. They lived there until the early 1860's when John and his wife along with their son, Alexander and his family moved to Mercer County, Missouri. John died there in 1865, near the town of Modena, but it is not known where he is buried. His wife, Jane, was listed on the 1870 Missouri Census for Mercer County, Madison Township, living with her son, Alexander. She may have died shortly after that as no further record of her has been found. Alexander died in Mercer County, Missouri in 1917.

John SHOEMAKER and his family moved to Mercer County, Missouri about 1875 where John died in 1899. The SHOEMAKERS had 8 children, their two eldest sons, Oscar and Edward both served in the 22nd Regiment, Company E, Iowa Infantry during the Civil War. At the battle of Cedar Creek Virginia on October 19, 1864, Oscar received a severe wound to the right arm rendering it useless and Edward was taken prisoner of war and spent time in Libbey Prison in Richmond, Virginia. He was released in March 1865 and shortly after died at his mother's home in Agency, Iowa. John YOUNKIN's other children appear to have all stayed in the Wapello County, Iowa area. Rebecca CREAMER may have died there shortly after the birth of her second child, Egbert, in 1847. Agnes JONES was listed on the 1850 Iowa Census in Wapello County with her husband and her son James JONES born in 1848. Jane LANNING died in 1884 and is buried in the Agency City Cemetery. Pertenah CARSON-MARTIN died in 1895 and is buried in Bladensburg Cemetery in Wapello County, Iowa. Rosabelle LARWOOD was still living in Wapello County in 1900. Moses YOUNKIN, my great great grandfather, died in a neighboring county in 1899 and is buried with his wife in the Agency City Cemetery.

Rudolph alias Ralph

As I write Rudolph's story a thought keeps wandering into my mind "I wonder if there were such a thing as the middle child syndrome in the 18th century." As the 5th of Henrich and Catharine (Scherer) Junghens' 9 children, surely he must have suffered with it! How in the world did Henry and Catharine find the time to give all of these children the attention today's psychologists say is absolutely necessary for the development of healthy well-adjusted adults! I wonder, too, if the terms "Super Mom" and "Super Dad" would not have been appropriate.

Though Henry and Catharine were married in St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Lehigh Co., Pa., they spent the majority of their married life in the rolling hills of Bucks County, Pa. This is where Rudolph and his brothers and sisters spent their childhoods. Their land was split between the townships of Bedminster and Haycock, separated by the Tohickon Creek, with approximately 87 acres in Bedminster and about 118 in Haycock. In the deed records Henry is referred to as being "of" Bedminster Twp., so his homeplace was undoubtedly on the Bedminster acreage. Their church, Keller's Lutheran, was but a stone's throw away.

Rudolph was born on the 7th day of July 1766. He married Elizabeth Hockman about the year 1786 (no marriage record has been found by this author). Elizabeth was the daughter of Rudolph Hockman, also of Bedminster Twp. Very little is known of the Hockman family but they were close neighbors of the Younkens. Rudolph Hockman died intestate (without a will) and his property was distributed to his only heirs, who were listed as: Jacob Hockman, Elizabeth wife of Rudolph Youngken, and Eve Hockman.

Our Rudolph and Elizabeth took up housekeeping in Bedminster Twp. and their first child, a daughter named Elizabeth, was born in 1787. It was in this same year that Rudolph's father, Henry, died.

The deed records indicate that Henry knew that death was imminent. On the 20th day of January 1787 Henry deeded his land to his son, Frederick. Henry died just one month later, on the 20th day of February 1787. Tracing Rudolph from this point on has been most difficult. The trails left by these ancestors are not without gaps. Though property was transferred between parties, quite often the deeds were never recorded. Two deeds that were both recorded on May 13, 1796, are of interest to our family history.

1) Rudolph Youngken, of Bedminster Twp., Yeoman, selling 118 acres in Haycock Twp. to George Deal. The deed states that the property had been deeded to Henry Youngken on Feb 17, 1756, from Dennis Barn and that on Jan 20, 1787, it was deeded by Henry to his son, Frederick Youngken, and it was again deeded on Mar 13, 1790, from Frederick to Rudolph.

2) Rudolph Youngken, of Bedminster Twp., Yeoman, selling 87 acres in Bedminster Twp. to George Deal for 500 lbs. This land was first deeded to Henry Sr. of Haycock on Jan 14, 1756, from Sebastian Wildanger and that it was given to Henry Jr. by his father's last will and testament. Henry Jr. sold the land to his brother Rudolph on Sep 11, 1794.

Drew Younkin

Drew Younkin, a junior business and foreign language major at Junita College, will spend six weeks of his summer vacation at the Universidad de las Americas in Puebla, Mexico.

He will be taking nine credits during his stay in Mexico, which will include a course in Mexican archaeology, contemporary Hispanic literature, and Spanish conversation and discussion. Two of the courses will be taught in Spanish. Younkin is hoping to become more proficient in Spanish and to also learn about Mexican life and culture first-hand.

The flexible program of emphasis attracted him to Junita because it allowed him to combine both of his interests in business and language.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Younkin of Stoystown RD 1, he is a 1988 graduate of North Star High School in Boswell. [Daily American, Somerset, PA.]

YOUNGKEN RECORDS SEARCH BY HEBER W. YOUNGKEN, JR. JANUARY 1985

From notes in Heber Wilkinson Youngken, Sr. file:

Apparent title search made in 1900 of land said to be deeded in Luzerne County, Pennsylvania to one or more sons of Herman Junkin (Younkin) for their service in Revolutionary War. Search made by Paul H. Wendel (or Company representatives), 111 East State St., Trenton, New Jersey.

Details of this reference are sketchy and not conclusive. A later search was conducted by Attorney Joseph Henderson, classmate of Heber W. Youngken, Sr., Bucknell University, Class 1909. Henderson later served as President of the American Bar Association. Results of this investigation (see later in this report) were not positive excepting that the recorder of Deeds, Williamsport, Northumberland County, Pennsylvania state (see H. Kittelman report 2/15/1919) that three deeds (commissioner deed) were recorded to a John Junkin as: selling property of Wm. Trent in Penns Twp. September 26, 1787; conveying property of Blair McClonagan in Bald Eagle Township on October 5, 1787. Also see reference in file to Recorder of Deeds Lycoming Co., Pennsylvania (Williamsport?) commission to John Junkin May 28, 1783 of two hundred and twenty-five acres in Penns Township surveyed in name of Patrick Carey (order dated 10/30/1766 #1739 - Deed Book page 153). Also see Recorder of Deeds Clinton Co. Lock Haven, Pennsylvania commission to John Junkin of three hundred acres in Bald Eagle Twp. surveyed to Theophilus Gardner on 12/18/1778. (see Deed Book 1778).

From notes of the Wendel search and a "Younkin Family News Bulletin" in Vol. 1 No. 1 Christmas Number, 1937, page 1 refers to this person as Johann Herman Jungken he came to the colonies from Rotterdam, Holland, on October 8, 1737 on the ship, "Charming Nancy" to Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania then settled in Tinicum (Nockamixon?) Bucks Co. (more on this later) He then in about 1746 bought a large farm at Applebacksville in Bucks Co., Pennsylvania on the Durham Road one mile from Bucksville later [*1759] he bought property in Nockamixon Township.

A John Jeremiah Younkin came in 1737 with his brother Herman Younkin. Like Herman he too first settled in Nockamixon Township near Philadelphia. (Note: the Younkin Family News Bulletin, 1937, states that Herman Jungken's brother JOHANN HEINRICH JUNGKEN came to Philadelphia in 1759 and with Herman settled in Tinicum, the Jungken homestead, (Nockamixon) Bucks County, Philadelphia). It may be that this Johann Jungken is the same as John Jeremiah Jounkin of the Wendel report and a more accurate name. (Note: the Heber Youngken line seems to be more directly related to a John Junkin line -- or Herman's brother or his son?)

A Henry Junghen, Herman's brother also came from Siegen in Hesse, Germany in about 1750-51, returned to Germany shortly afterwards. His wife died there and in 1756 he returned to Bucks County, Pennsylvania with his second wife, Catharine Scherer. He bought two hundred acres of property in Bedminster and Haycock. He had four sons and two daughters by his second wife. His oldest son was John Junghen by his first wife and Henry came to Bucks County in 1754 and he married a Catherine Killicker in 1759. Other children of Henry and Catherine Junghen were Jacob (second son), Frederick, born 1789, died 1838) Rudolph, and Henry. There were two daughters for which record of only Elizabeth is given in the Younkin Family News Bulletin, 1937, Page 1-2.

Henry Junghen died in 1787 at the homestead in Tinicum Bucks County, Pennsylvania and his tombstone is said to be at Keller's Church in Bedminster Twp., Bucks County, Pennsylvania.

Herman Junghen, married to Magdalena, a Huguenot, had five sons. The oldest was John Jungkin who married Anna Maria Essig in 1771. Others were Abraham (second son who married Elizabeth Wyker), Daniel, George and Herman. Magdalena died in about 1788; shortly afterwards married an Eva Shill and with her, had one son, Killian.

Herman Junghen died about 1798 in Nockamixon (Tinicum) Bucks Co., Pennsylvania and was buried in the Lutheran Church cemetery there.

Records in the Wendel report (1900-01) indicate the following Junghens (Younkin) were soldiers in the Revolutionary War.

1. John Junghin (probably eldest son of Henry Junghen or eldest son of Herman Junghen?) was a private in the Nockamixon Company in 1775. Capt. Jacob Shoop - Vol. XIV, page 167, Pennsylvania Series.
2. Jacob Jungken (second son of Henry Junghen) Militia Company Bucks County, Pennsylvania
3. Joseph Junghen (relationship unknown?) First Lieutenant, Second Company, Third Battalion, Cumberland Company, 1777.
4. Adam Junghen (Younkin)
5. Thomas Junghen (Younkin) Fourth Battalion Col. Anthony Wayne and Capt. Persifors Frazers Co.

6. Peter Junghen (Junkin) (Younkin) Capt. T. Humphreys Co. Capt. Jacob Schwarty Roll, Seventh Co. First Rifle Regiment (see Pennsylvania Archives, Vol Series 1812-1815 (?).

From Younkin Family News Bulletin 1937 page 5 article on " The Youngkin Dream of Fortune" by Gustavus N. Hart, Haddonfield, New Jersey 1937, the following is reported:

John Youngkin (Jungken, Junkin) son of Herman Youngkin (Jungken, Junkin) was a member of the Nockamixon Township Bucks County Company Militia during the Revolutionary War. He married a Barbara Wimmer and by her had one son named David Youngkin (Junghen, Junken) born April 5, 1804. It is said (see reference above) that John was married again later to a woman named McLaughlin and by her had two children.

Note a discrepancy here in that another report from the same reference, p.1 the "Junghen Family of Bucks County." article states that Herman and Magdalena Junghen's eldest son, John " was probably born in Philadelphia in 1743. He married Anna Maria Essig in 1771 in Bucks County, Pennsylvania (Nockamixon, Pennsylvania) and they had three sons and four daughters. Their oldest son was named Nicholas. Other sons were Michael, and Abraham. (Check records in Bucks County Courthouse, Doylestown, Pennsylvania and Historical Society of Pennsylvania to clarify this discrepancy).

Some confusion therefore exists in both references as to the relationship of a DAVID YOUNGKIN (Junghen, Junken) to JOHN JUNGHEN (Junken) of Revolutionary War time and son of Herman Junghen (Junken, etc.). The reference to a baptismal certificate seen by the writer of the article " The Youngkin Dream of Fortune" (see reference above) was in German or Pennsylvania Dutch and stated that DAVID was born the son of John Youngkin (Junken, Jenghen) and his wife, Barbara Wimmer on April 5, 1804.

NOTE: Eugene Youngken, son of Heber Wilkinson Youngken, Sr. has the baptismal certificate of David Younken in South Sutton, New Hampshire. This shows same birth date for David and his father's name is Johann Juncken.

DAVID JUNKEN (Junghen, Youngken, etc.) and his wife, Matilda, were the parents of JOSIAH G. YOUNGKEN, (Junken), born February 6, 1827 in Richland Township, Bucks County, Pennsylvania. (see original birth certificate for Josiah Youngken, (Junken) in possession of H.Y. Jr.

JOSIAH YOUNGKEN, born 1827, died Thursday, January 25, 1907 at age of 80 years; buried Springfield Cemetery near Richland Township, Bucks Co., Pennsylvania and his wife, Maria Helen, who died December 16, 1897, were the parents of Charles Eugene Youngken, born March 10, 1853 in Hanover Township, Lehigh County, Pennsylvania. (see original birth certificate for Charles Eugene Youngken in possession of H.Y. Jr.).

CHARLES EUGENE YOUNGKEN (note spelling of Youngken name shows as such for first time on this birth certificate for Charles Youngken) married Marion Wingrove Wilkinson of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania in Grace Baptist Church Philadelphia, Pennsylvania September 12, 1884. (Note that they were married by Reverend Russell H. Conwell, the famous author and national lecturer on " Acres of Diamonds".)

Charles Youngken and Marian Wilkinson had three sons, Heber Wilkinson Youngken, the eldest, born October 31, 1885 in Richland Town., Pennsylvania. Eugene Wingrove Youngken, born February 14, 1888 in Quakertown, Pennsylvania and Dell Wallace Youngken, born June 15, 1889 in Quakertown, Pennsylvania.

Charles Eugene Youngken died in North Wales, Pennsylvania, August 5, 1943 and Marian Wilkinson Youngken died in North Wales, Pennsylvania on June 28, 1934. Both are buried in Green Lawn Cemetery, North Wales, Pennsylvania.

Eugene Youngken married Lillian Downer (New Jersey) date ? and they had no children. Eugene Youngken died in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, September 1966. Dell Wallace Youngken, a World War I veteran was unmarried and died (heart attack) in Coatsville, Pennsylvania on July 9, 1928. He had served in World War I as a medical corps sergeant during which time he was gased while in the trenches in France. Lillian Downer, wife of Eugene Youngken, died in about 1982. Eugene, Dell and Lillian are also buried in Green Lawn Cemetery, North Wales, Pennsylvania.

HEBER WILKINSON YOUNGKEN married Clara Maud Eastman in Bloomsburg, Pennsylvania on September 12, 1911 (a home wedding) and they had two sons and two daughters: Marion Evelyn Youngken born July 29, 1912, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; Heber Wilkinson Youngken, Jr. born August 13, 1913 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Flora Eastman Youngken born May 11, 1915 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. (Died from Gehrig's disease 1971 in Arlington, Massachusetts) and Eugene Wingrove Youngken born June 20, 1925 in Arlington , Massachusetts.

Heber Wilkinson Youngken died in Arlington, Massachusetts, July 22, 1963 at age 77 and Clara Eastman Youngken, his wife, died at age 81 in Lexington, Massachusetts (nursing home) on September 6, 1967. Both are buried in Almedia Cemetery, near Bloomsburg, Pennsylvania.

Marion Evelyn Youngken married George Hopper Gowdy in Arlington, Massachusetts 1935. They had two sons, one daughter. George Gowdy died January 3, 1979.

Heber Wilkinson Youngken, Jr. married Daphne Goodwin of Hereford, England in Minneapolis, Minnesota on March 28, 1942. They had one daughter, Sue Ann, born January 17, 1945 in Seattle, Washington, died

April 19, 1948 and is buried in Evergreen Cemetery, Seattle Washington, and two sons, John Ronald Youngken born in Seattle, Washington February 22, 1949 and Richard Charles Youngken, born in Seattle January 4, 1952.

HEBER WILKINSON YOUNGKEN, JR. served in the U.S. Navy as Ensign Lieutenant J.G. and Lieutenant in WWII from 1943-1946. He was a USNR officer and later became a Captain USNR (1964). He was Dean of Pharmacy College, University of Rhode Island from 1957-1981 when he retired.

FLORA EASTMAN YOUNGKEN married William McCarty in Arlington, Massachusetts in 1942 and they had two sons, William and Richard McCarty. Flora died in January 1971 and her husband, William McCarty, M.D. died of cerebral meningitis in Arlington, Massachusetts in 1978 (?). Both are buried in a Catholic cemetery in Arlington, Massachusetts. William McCarty, M.D., was remarried to Elizabeth Watson in about 1976 shortly before his death.

EUGENE WINGROVE YOUNGKEN, Heber Wilkinson Youngken Senior's son and brother to Heber Jr. is unmarried. He is an instructor and Head of the Fine Arts at Colby Sawyer College in New London, New Hampshire.

JOHN RONALD YOUNGKEN, son of Heber, Jr. and Daphne Youngken married Victoria Vanstorey of Greensboro, North Carolina on February 16, 1979. They have two daughters, Kelly Youngken, born September 30, 1979 and Abigail Youngken, born August 1, 1983, both at New York Hospital in New York City, New York.

RICHARD CHARLES YOUNGKEN, 2nd, son of Heber, Jr. and Daphne Youngken married Joan Fricke Gibson of Glen Falls, New York May 16 1981 in Glen Falls, New York.

I Married A Younkkin

by Larry Logan

Hello again ...it's time for all of us non-Younkins to commiserate about what we got ourselves into when we said "I do". Before getting into the topic for this issue, I'll make mention of some of the mail I've received. It doesn't come as a great surprise to me that most of the mail has been from YOUNKINS, who were told explicitly that the column was not for them. Deep down, I knew they would be "peeking". It seems to be a dominant YOUNKIN trait to tend to other people's business in a proportion slightly greater than they tend to their own (especially when it come to spouses). Oh well -- go ahead and read the column, Younkkin.....but if it hits a nerve, don't blame me.

Most of the mail received has been comments of agreement or support for some of my personal speculations about the YOUNKIN traits and characteristics. In fact, I haven't received one letter that says, "Hey, Logan! Wait a minute! YOUNKINS aren't like that!" Quite a few of the notes have said that they "enjoy the humor". To these comments I must reply, "Who's joking!"

There was one really unique letter from an I.M.A.Y. spouse who had apparently divorced their particular YOUNKIN. Not only did this person agree with all of my comments, but then went on, at some length, to extoll the non-virtues of YOUNKINS. Some of the observations made cannot be re-printed in a "family" newsletter. (As you might have guessed, the Ex-I.M.A.Y. did not subscribe).

I've had a couple questions concerning the LOGAN family..."where do your LOGANs come from?" "Do you know Sally or William LOGAN who was a part of my family in 1756 or 1898?" To answer these questions, I must be honest and say that we haven't been able to find out too much about my LOGANs, so I don't know your LOGANs. My LOGANs lived in Chicago, and what little we can find seems to involve the early Teamsters Union, some kick-back schemes, a few machine gunnings, and a number of official records that contained erroneous information. The fact is, some of my LOGANs may have changed their name for "career" reasons, (or the avoidance of prosecution)...

Sure, there are always some black sheep in every family. And that gets me to the topic of this issue's I.M.A.Y. article. WHAT'S IN A NAME? Or, how can the fact that people shared a particular name affect their entire life, and contribute to similar traits? For example, the name LOGAN is most predominantly used as the name for "bad guys" in Western Movies and pulp novels. Historically, there is a Logan Circle in Washington D.C. that has a statue of Civil War General something, something LOGAN. Actually, General Logan was a congressman who never fought in the war, but got a bill passed to proclaim him (and a number of other congressmen) to the rank of General. (The bill also included the naming of Logan Circle, and the erection of the statue).

LOGAN isn't so bad compared to some of the names that people must live with (or live down as the case may be). Look at the TV show called "Normal Life" that's just about to be cancelled. It stars Dweezil and Moon Unit ZAPPA (brother & sister). Or, just look in any phone book -- Frederick's city directory provides Don BOOS, D.R. BUMB, C.D. COFFIN, Francis FLABBI, Marge GRAB.... to name a few.

Finally, that gets us to the name YOUNKIN. A literal definition could mean "Young-", thereby indicating youthful; immature; childlike (or childish); adolescent; etc. Young means never growing old, which also means never growing up. "-Kin", means a relative. So a YOUNKIN would literally mean your relative's kids -- (and we all know what they are like).

Now this, in itself, may not have a devastating impact on a lifetime. However, when examining the name YOUNKIN it is important to find words that are similar in nature, or, words that people would relate to the name. It is a unique fact that there are only two words in the English language that rhyme with YOUNKIN. They are the words PUMPKIN and BUMPKIN.

I can well imagine growing up as a YOUNKIN tyke, in a schoolyard anywhere in the U.S., the childhood chants that would result. Kids are mean and vicious organisms. Could this be the reason that my YOUNKIN hates country (bumpkin) music, and will have nothing to do with Thanksgiving (pumpkin) pie in November?

Scars from childhood are particularly difficult to heal. And a "pumpkin" scar is particularly ugly...

See you next issue.

Don't forget :

The last weekend in September is the Annual YOUNKIN / FAIDLEY Reunion. It will be held in Wakefield, Kansas. For more information call or write to Norma Jean Milligan; 3329 NW 43; Topeka, Kansas (913-286-0390)

A Visit to Bucks County

by Donna Younkin Logan

Not having been raised on a "Century Farm" (farms owned by the same family for more than 100 years) or even in the same house as my parents, I had an exhilaratingly new experience a few weeks ago. My dad, Don Younkin, came up from Boca Raton, FL., to spend a week with his "harem", as he calls us, of 4 daughters. On the 3rd day of his visit, he announced that he wanted to see the land that our ancestors had settled. Early the next morning, Dad and I left for our first visit to Bucks County, Pennsylvania — our ancestral home—and my first opportunity to walk upon the same soil as my GGGGG-Grandfather.

After a 4 hour drive, we arrived, in the county seat of Doylestown. We spent 2 minutes discussing whether lunch or the courthouse would be first on our agenda. Our stomachs won. During lunch, we pored over the notes that I had quickly gathered the night before. We knew that the first leg of this journey had to take place at the courthouse (both of us would have preferred to drive through the gorgeous countryside). The courthouse had the deeds we needed to research to be able to find Henry and Herman's land boundaries. I also wanted to copy all of the YOUNKIN Wills and Estate records that are housed in this courthouse. While I greedily kidnapped the clerk's copier, Dad researched our YOUNKIN deeds. Dad's task was far greater than either of us had imagined. All of the early deeds are on microfilm with incredibly tiny print and each of the many deeds had to be read in detail to figure out which property was being sold or bought. Given our time restrictions, Dad soon realized he would have to zero in on only one property to research. He decided to do the one mentioned in the Anita EYSTER article "The Junghen family of Bucks County" as it was reputedly the last land owned by the immigrant, Henrich / Henry, and was the subject of the inheritance of his children. One deed for this property gave us the following fact "Henry YOUNKIN, of Loudoun County in the state of Virginia"— this is the first formidable evidence that Henry, son of Henrich, actually resided in Virginia. Though he was thought to have lived there, I had previously checked all of the courthouse records in Loudoun County, VA., and found no mention of his name anywhere! Several hours (and many deeds) later we left the courthouse and were on our way to Bedminster. Our next stop — Keller's Lutheran Church. We found a map that showed us the way to Keller's Lutheran Church, and although it is now called St. Matthews, the map still showed the name Keller's! Obviously, our church is still a landmark. It has taken me almost 3 years to get my Dad excited about this family history project — but this trip did it! I had barely stopped the car in the church cemetery parking lot when he was off and running up and down the aisles looking for our ancestors. Catharine, Henrich's wife, was easy to find. Her tombstone is in perfect condition and reads:

Catharine Youngken
wife of

Henry Youngken
died 1825 in the
99th year of her age

Henrich and Catharine's daughter (and son-in-law, Jacob Meyers) is buried next to Catharine. Her stone is interesting as it reads:

In Memory of Catharine wife of Jacob Meyers
a born Younken
born April 1 1775
died April 28 1865
aged 90 years & 27 days

It was not until quite a bit later that we were able to find Henrich's headstone. Many of the stones around his are rather new and are marked "unknown". But Henrich's is quite legible and is made of what appears to be (possibly baked) red clay earth. It has fallen victim to time, however, as a corner has been chipped off and thus reads:

...NRICH JUNGHEN
GEBORHREN DEN 31
TEN JANUARI 1717
GESTOPBEN DEN
20 FEBRUARI
1787

The next day was spent looking for Henry's land. Our first stop was to the Bucks County Historical Society library. We were able to find many references to our family, and the many lines of descendants, but the most helpful was a map that showed early land patents with the owner's name and there was Henry's. We copied the map and went back to Keller's Church (as that was used as the point of reference on the map) and from there calculated the location of the land. It may interest you that a goodly portion of the land is now covered by the Nockamixon Lake and much of our ancestor's land is in the new Nockamixon State Park. A dam was built about 20 years ago on the Tohickon Creek. This creek separated two parcels of land that Henry owned, part was on the Bedminster side of the creek and the other parcel was on the Haycock. After driving around to the Haycock side, we marveled at the inspiring view our ancestors had of the gorgeous country side. One can stand upon our land and look across the lake and have a clear view of Keller's Lutheran Church. This was undoubtedly their view too those many years ago. My Dad and I both thought this would make a wonderful place for the next YOUNKIN FAMILY REUNION.

Our next stop was the church that was attended by Henry's brother, Herman. Since many of the descendants have said that there is no marker for his grave we did not check for one (our time was just too limited). Part of the reason for this trip was to take photographs and have the ability to share them with the rest of you that may never have the opportunity to see where our roots first began on American soil. I have put together a package of the best photographs and several other items from this trip and will send them to those people so desiring. Needless to say, I can't afford to copy these items for free so I have figured out what they will cost to copy and send and I have set a price of $6.00 for the package which includes 4 color photographs (Catharine & Henry's tombstones, Keller's Church, & a view of our land) a 1783 map of Bedminster showing Henrich's land & a copy of either Henry or Herman's Will and Estate Inventory (please specify!).

Pennsylvania Dutch ?

Pennsylvania Dutch refers to the people who came to Pennsylvania in the 1600's and 1700's from the German Rhineland, and their descendants. Some of these immigrants came from the German part of Switzerland, and others were French Huguenots. Actually none of them came from The Netherlands. They were called Dutch because the word Deutsch, which means German, was misinterpreted.

These settlers came to Pennsylvania mainly because of the promise of religious freedom there. They had suffered intolerance and persecution in Europe. They settled mainly in eastern Pennsylvania, in Berks, Lancaster, Lebanon, Lehigh, Northampton, and York counties. The broad valleys, gently flowing streams, and rich limestone soil reminded them of home. Their genius for farming made the region a garden spot. By 1750, they made up half the population of Pennsylvania.

Most of the original Pennsylvania Dutch belonged to the Lutheran or Reformed churches. They were called "the church people." Some of the settlers belonged to various groups that grew out of Pietism, a religious movement which opposed all formal religious practices. The groups included the Amish and Mennonites, noted for their plain dress and distrust of formal church ways. Today they are called "the plain people," and live mainly in Lancaster County. Another early group, the Moravians, founded Bethlehem, Pa.

Pennsylvania Dutch artisans invented the Conestoga wagon and the Pennsylvania rifle, which helped America win the West. The people still maintain their dialect and unique customs. Their distinctive art style is known for its colorful decorative motifs. Their love of music has resulted in beautiful church music, especially choirs such as the famed Bach choir.

I received a letter recently from Juanita Younkin, of Akron, Ohio. She (along with all the other YOUNKIN families in Akron and surrounding areas) had received a letter from Kay Ackerman-Martin, M.A. of Ohio Professional Counseling Services. Kay was requesting information on the family of the above David Randolph Younkin. Juanita had asked around and no one knew anything about him, so, Juanita thought maybe myself or other readers of our newsletter could help. I decided to call Kay and she tells me that David was separated from his parents at an early age when he was placed in foster care (David had 2 brothers and a sister that were all placed in separate homes). Through these letters, Kay was contacted by David's sister, Brenda. Brenda was quite excited to know that David was well and they planned to meet the next week. Kay, also, learned that both of David's parents are now dead. David has at least 2 brothers, in addition to his sister, Brenda, that he would like to find (his sister has never heard from them). David was born 7 Feb 1956 in Akron, his older brother, Roger, was born about 1950 and his other brother, Albert, is about David's same age so they may have been twins. David's parents names were Earl Clarence and Jennie (Strhoya) Younkin. If you can help David find the remaining members of his family, please write to: Kay Ackerman-Martin, M.A.; 3400 North High St., Suite 120; Columbus, OH. 43202; phone 614-268-1094.

A Man Called Moses

"On the night of January 20th 1892, I was called to see said Moses Younkin who was at John Bennetts, about two miles from this city. I found him suffering from several severe wounds in the face and head, skull broken, also bones of nose and face, one eye protruding down on the left cheek. He had lost a great deal of blood, and was semiconscious. I fixed him up as best I could, stayed with him during the night until 3 O'clock next morning when he died. I am satisfied that he was murdered." - statement made by Dr. J. F. Cross in New Whatcom [now Bellingham], Whatcom Co., WA. Such was the end of the long and colorful life of Moses Younkin. (DR. CROSS'S affidavit was found in Moses's Civil War Pension file)

Moses was the 2nd child born to Henry F. and Mary (KING) YOUNKIN. Moses and all of his 11 brothers and sisters were born in Somerset Co., Pa. On 5 Jun 1851 Moses and Lavila MITCHELL, daughter of John A. and Rebecca (TANNEHILL) MITCHELL, were married. It was shortly after their marriage that they left for their new life together in the west. They lived first in Bloomington, McLean Co., IL. and from there proceeding to Pottowatomie Co., Kansas. In April of 1856, they made their home on the site that was then called Timber Creek [now Wakefield] in Clay County, Kansas.

As close as can be determined their first child, Emma, was born in McLean Co., IL. Their second child, John Mitchell, was born in Pottowatomie Co., KS. Their third child, Edward/Edwin Leander, was born on the 2nd day of December 1858 and has the notable distinction of being the first child of white American parentage born in Timber Creek/Grant Twp., Clay Co., KS. The remaining children, Carrie, William, Walter, Robert and Moses Jr. were all born in Timber Creek. Their daily lives were undoubtedly filled with the severity of taming the wilderness of Clay Co. just to survive.

Survival was undoubtedly the first word that popped into Moses Younkin's head the afternoon of May 20th 1857. "two men, more dead than alive, had come to his cabin asking for help. These men had walked one hundred miles without food in something less than three days and two nights, to find relief for the survivors of an emigrant train robbed by Indians at Pawnee Bend, in the Republican Valley. Eight wagonloads of Arkansas travelers, each drawn by three yoke of oxen counting twenty-five men, women and children, well provisioned for a six months' trip, en route to Oregon with a herd of 400 cattle and a few horses, comprised the outfit. They moved leisurely, traveling about fifteen miles daily, and the Indians had, no doubt, dogged the train for days, until satisfied they could capture it with small hazard to themselves."¹ After receiving word from the Commander at the Ft. Riley Post that no help would be forthcoming, Moses, along with several of his neighbors, assisted the devastated party of settlers. There is no doubt the above adventure served Moses well. His country would benefit from his many perilous experiences during our bloodiest of wars. Moses served the Union forces during the Civil War. He enlisted in the 11th Kansas Cavalry Company L on the 31st day of March 1864 and was honorably discharged as a Sargeant on the 26th day of September 1865. In later years, he suffered the effects of the hard times our soldiers were subjected to. His Civil War Pension claimed exposure to nature's elements, during his service, produced a lame back among other maladies.

On March 26th 1879, Moses lost his beloved wife, Lavila. She is buried in Timber Creek, Clay Co., Kansas. 'Adventure' was Moses's middle name - he sought it diligently throughout his life. It was shortly after Lavila's death that Moses, along with several of his children, left Kansas for the newest frontier - the Washington Territory. With his youngest son, Moses Jr., under 10 years of age, and without the help and support of his wife, life in the new territory must have been difficult for him. It was only a short time after leaving Kansas that Moses returned and took Miss Mary THOMPSON as his wife. They were married on the 8th day of February 1883 by the Rev. J.L. DAWSON at the home of Wm. GORDON [there were no children born to this union]. Moses and Mary resided in the town of New Whatcom [now Bellingham], Whatcom Co., WA. the remainder of their lives together.

Family Tradition says that Moses was murdered by Indians. Whether this is fact or fiction will probably never be known. What is known is that he died a violent death. In a letter written to Charles A. Younkin, editor of the original YFNB, by Mrs. Elizabeth M. Younkin (wife of William Elmer Younkin) of Rock Creek, British Columbia she states that 'He was murdered presumably by Indians, but while they had a trial, it did not end in a conviction. In Bellingham, WA. there is a G.A.R. Post in Mr. Younkins memory.'

Of Moses and Lavila's children we have:

Emma Virginia b. 18 Jul 1852; m. 6 Apr 1875
Henry A. ELIAS; d. 17 Aug 1933 Randolph, KS.

(the gap here may indicate another child was born and died in infancy)

John Mitchell b. 8 Mar 1856; m. Emma Jane MALL; d. 29 Aug 1932 Broughton, KS.

Edward/Edwin Leander b. 2 Dec 1858; lived in Alaska late 1930's (?)

Carrie Lycemia b. 18 May 1861; d. 8 Dec 1864 Timber Creek, KS.

William Elmer b. 15 Oct 1863; m. 28 Jun 1928 Elizabeth MAXWELL; d. 27 Jun 1945 B.C., CN

Walter B. b. 29 Jul 1866

Robert Bruce b. 19 Jan 1869; m. 1901 Mabel WEIR; d. 2 Sep 1941

Moses Jr. b. 20 Jun 1871; last known in California

My thanks to the many researchers who provided much the above information on Moses' life: Mrs. Janice (YOUNKIN) SCHNECK, June (YOUNKIN) STEGGS, Diana (MOWREY) RUSSELL & Willis H. YOUNKIN.

John Henry Yunken. Lutheran. As

"Johann Henrich Juncken," arrived in Philadelphia on September 17, 1753. Between November 1754 and December 1756 entered into the Germantown register records of many pastoral acts, including baptisms, confirmations, marriages, and burials, but not communions. On two occasions identified himself in the register as "Pfarrer J.H.J." Served that part of the congregation which opposed the Hallensians and which had possession of the church during the decade of strife in the 1750s and 1760s. Henry Melchior Muhlenberg made no mention of Yunken in his known journals and letters, which contained many references to the Germantown troubles. "Henry Yunken" of Springfield Township, Philadelphia county, who may have been the former Germantown "Pfarrer" naturalized on September 24, 1760. (NFP, p. 61)

BELIEVE IT OR NOT ! A Funny Thing Happened on Our Visit to Nashville:

My Uncle, Gene YOUNKIN, called me a couple weeks ago and said he had a story for our YFNB. He and His wife, Mary Lynn, had taken a trip to Nashville, TN. and here's his story:

' Our daughter called our hotel and asked for the YOUNKIN suite. The desk clerk questioned "which one?". Our bewildered daughter replied " which one?! you mean you have more than one YOUNKIN family staying there ! ?". "yes," stated the clerk, "we have two - which one do you want?". '

age of a 'family genealogist' at about 50 years old, we can surmise that there was, and still is, a definite lack of interest in (or perhaps time to persue) their roots with the younger generation. Those of you who have subscribed recognize the value of our publication and I will ask you to encourage these younger folks. At minimum, suggest that they write to me so that we might benefit from their personal knowledge of our family. I might also suggest that you take some time to check your local phone books and call other YOUNKIN / YOUNGKIN / YONKIN / YOUNGKEN families that are listed there and tell them about our Newsletter. I have found when I blindly call YOUNKIN families, in cities we are visiting, I am always welcomed with a warm and friendly conversation — after all — they are our cousins — THEY JUST DON'T REALIZE IT YET! Our biggest goal with the YFNB is to give everyone their proper place on our Family Tree and believe me — I can't do it alone. I need your help! If we all spent one Sunday afternoon contacting people imagine what could be accomplished! In the old days Sundays were reserved for family get-togethers — lets keep that tradition — don't just call them — invite them over for Sunday family get-together.

Some mornings I wake up "Grouchy", other mornings I let him sleep.

A third deed recorded on June 1, 1796, shows George Deal selling the 87 acres back to Rudolph Youngken for a price of 575 lbs. — not a very good businessman, was he? These were the only references that I found for property transfers for Rudolph in the Bucks County, Pa., deed index. It may be that other deeds existed but were never recorded.

Rudolph is listed in the 1790 Federal census in Bucks County — his name is listed for the first time here as "Ralph." In his household were himself and 5 females. We know of Elizabeth and their daughter, Elizabeth, and perhaps by 1790 they had had another female child. The other 2 females may have been Rudolph's mother (as she was now a widow) and perhaps the other female was Eve Hockman, Elizabeth's sister.

The next record we have for Rudolph is the baptism of his son, Joseph, in the New Jerusalem Evangelical Church, of Lovettsville, Loudoun Co., Virginia, in 1806 [YFNB Vol. 1 #2]. The next Census record we have for Rudolph is the 1810 Federal Census. He was still living in Loudoun County, Virginia, and the family consisted of 1 male under 10 years of age, 1 male age 10-16, 1 male age 26-45, 1 female under 10, 2 females 10-16, 1 female 26-45. I have been unable to find Rudolph in any of the 1800 Census records. This is most unfortunate as there is now a large gap of time when his children had grown and have left the home place. Until more official records are found, much of the information we have on Rudolph and Elizabeth's family is still supposition. Family tradition tells us that their daughter Elizabeth married a Mr. Smedley but I have not seen any records to this effect. The first male child born to Rudolph and Elizabeth was John b. 27 Jul 1791 who married Elizabeth "Margaret" Trout [YFNB Vol 1 #1]. Next was Jacob born 6 Apr 1796 he was baptized 16 Jun 1796 in Kellers Lutheran church of Bedminster, Pa. The third son was Henry who married Sarah Ann Bartlett on 15 Feb 1821 in Muskingum Co., Ohio. The fourth son, Samuel, born 2 Nov 1798 married Catherine Godlove on 3 Oct 1822 in Perry County, Ohio. A search of the early marriage records of Ohio show a Sarah/Sally Younkin married John Trout on 28 Nov 1823 and a Mary Younkin married Elijah Atkins on 4 Apr 1822 both in Perry County, Ohio. Because no other Younkin families have been found in this area of Ohio at this early date, I am assuming that Sarah and Mary are the daughters of Rudolph and Elizabeth. The last son is Joseph born 24 Aug 1806 who married Susan Meek on 18 Aug 1833 in Ohio. Though several articles in the early issues of the original YOUNKIN FAMILY NEWS BULLETIN indicated that Rudolph died in 1814, the 1830 Federal Census shows Ralph Younkin in Bearfield Twp., Perry County, Ohio, age 60-70 years old and his wife as age 60-70. The only other person in the house is a male age 15-20. Living next door is his son, John, with his family, and his daughter and son-in-law, the John Trouts. So, obviously, Rudolph lived until sometime after 1830.

Many of our subscribers are descendants of Rudolph and I would like to thank them for their assistance in preparing this biography of Rudolph. The many family Bible records, family group sheets, biographical extracts from various county histories all helped tremendously. Of course, I will welcome any corrections or additions. In future issues of the YFNB we will have more on the descendants of Rudolph and Elizabeth (Hockman) Younkin.

Younkin Family News Bulletin

A Tribute to Our Family

Volume 1, Number 4

October, November, December 1990

Donna Younkin Logan, publisher

Dear Cousins,

Boy... are we taking a "beating" this month with Larry's I.M.A.Y. column. One of our readers wrote in a few months ago and said "you two must have a very strong marriage for it to withstand Larry's col." I thought "Geez, surely he doesn't mean those terrible things — he is just kidding, isn't he?" Someone once said that there is always some truth to any joke - that's what makes it funny! hmmmm...

Speaking of procrastination - I have been meaning to tell you something and keep forgetting. In the first newsletter I said that I wouldn't be printing extra copies of the newsletter - well, I lied - actually - I found out (after writing that) that the printer doesn't charge that much more for a couple hundred extra copies (the expense is in the initial set up) so I have had plenty of copies for new subscribers and will always have the ability to have all back issues available for purchase. Actually, I am on the second printing of Vol 1 #1! I have sent out over 900 to date. Quite a few went to County & State Historical and Genealogical Societies in various parts of the country where our families are known to have lived. If you can think of a Society or library where I could send one please let me know.

I know that I have told most, if not all, of you this but for the record - let me, again, say - all subscriptions will run on a calendar year - in other words January thru December. If someone subscribes in July, they will receive all of the current year's back issues and their subscription will end with the Oct. Nov. Dec. issue of that year. Subscriptions received after November 1st will automatically be applied to the following year, and back issues can be purchased separately. I hope that this is clear - I know it sounds confusing - if you have any questions just drop me a line. This policy allows me the least amount of bookkeeping - renewal notices only have to go out once a year & all at the same time. Bookkeeping is just about my least favorite thing to do.

Even though I have a 3 drawer file cabinet and a bookshelf filled with YOUNKIN material - that doesn't mean I have your family lines. If you haven't, as yet, sent in your Pedigree Chart and Family Group Sheets - please think about it. I do make subscriber's lines the priority for newsletter articles. If you haven't seen an article on your family - it may be because I don't know which one it is.

You might be wondering just what I will do with all of the family records & materials you have sent to me. Well, I plan to keep everything as long as I live (right down to the little postcards you've sent). I haven't thrown anything away. After I am gone, my children have agreed to deposit the materials at one of three places. Whichever one will, at that time, promise not to destroy the files. This will be either the Bucks County Historical Society, the Somerset County Historical Society or the Mormon Church (no, I am not Mormon - but after microfilming the material they will keep the originals in their facility). This way our GGGG-grandchildren will have access to our family files and they won't have to start the research all over as we are having to do. I am also putting together photograph albums of our family photographs - these will be fun to take to National Family Reunions as well as being kept for posterity. When you submit a photograph for the newsletter, please try to send a copy that I can keep for our album.

Please note the message on the renewal form about a 1991 National YOUNKIN FAMILY REUNION.

In this issue, I have combined a mini-lesson in genealogy with an article submitted by Ina P. (Fister) Bright. I have also included in the same article new information that we have on our immigrant Henry's son, Henry Jr.

Because of the many multiple marriages between our YOUNKIN family and several of the allied families (such as MINERD, RUSH, WEIMER, FAIDLEY, PRINGEY, ETC.) in future issues I will feature an article on one of these families - if you have a particular interest in one of them and would like to submit an article for publication—I would welcome it. The January issue will feature a YOUNKIN/PRINGEY family. I received this a few weeks ago from D. Bruce Howell and was so impressed after reading his story, that I asked Bruce if I could share it with the rest of you. In reading it you will, as I was, be transported back in time to the days when our ancestors pioneered in Pennsylvania as well as the western frontier. Though this is the story of but one family - it is representative of all of the families that braved these unknown territories in the 1800's.

How Many Times Can You Be a YOUNKIN ?

For "Dale" Younk of Pocatello, ID. — it's 3 times:

Actually, this is not all that unusual, we have several cousins that have Henrich/Henry JUNGHEN as an ancestor on an average of 2 branches of their tree. If your ancestors lived in the same area for as many years as did Dale's did, your chances are much greater of cousins marrying cousins. I, myself, share the same GGG etc. grandfather, Edward DORSEY, on 3 branches of my ancestor tree. It has been said by many of the descendants of these DORSEY branches that "they married their cousins 'cause no one else was good enough!"

In Dale's case— it is unknown who Mary Polly's parents are. Research is currently being conducted to try to establish her parentage.

Theodore "Ted" & Esther Younk (1970)

William "Dale" & Jerry Younk (1948)

"FIRST FAMILIES" PROGRAMS

In an effort to establish the genealogies of the Pioneer Families in their respective states, various State Genealogical & Historical Societies are sponsoring FIRST FAMILIES programs. The Ohio Genealogical Society is an excellent example of this program. I quote from their brochure - "Any member of the OGS who is a direct descendant of an individual who settled in the area now encompassed by the State of Ohio, before 1820, may become a member of the FIRST FAMILIES OF OHIO, on the acceptance of an application with proof of such descent and the payment of a $30.00 application fee. All descent must be by blood and not by adoption. An application for First Families of Ohio may be obtained by a member of the society at no cost by writing to: The Ohio Genealogical Society P.O. Box 2625; Mansfield, OH. 44906" - Several of our YOUNKIN lines should easily qualify for this OGS program.

The Kansas Council of Genealogical Societies has, also, initiated a First Families program but at this writing I don't have further details on it. Their address is: P.O. Box 8038, Topeka, KS. 66608.

As I become aware of these programs, I will place a notice in our Newsletter about them. As always, if you are aware of similar programs in other states please submit the information to me for publication.

MY OWN GRANDPAW

"MANY, MANY YEARS AGO WHEN I WAS 23...
I WAS MARRIED TO A WIDOW WHO WAS PRETTY AS COULD BE

THIS WIDOW HAD A GROWN UP DAUGHTER WHO HAD HAIR OF RED
MY FATHER FELL IN LOVE WITH HER AND SOON THEY TOO WERE WED

THIS MAKE MY DAD MY SON-IN-LAW AND CHANGED MY VERY LIFE;
FOR MY DAUGHTER WAS MY MOTHER 'CAUSE SHE'S MY FATHER'S WIFE

TO COMPLICATE THE MATTER EVEN THO IT BROUGHT ME JOY, I SOON BECAME A FATHER OF A BOUNCING BABY BOY!

MY LITTLE BABY THEN BECAME A BROTHER-IN-LAW TO DAD,
AND SO BECAME MY UNCLE THO IT MADE ME VERY SAD!

FOR IF HE WAS MY UNCLE THEN THAT ALSO MAKES HIM BROTHER OF THE WIDOW'S GROWN UP DAUGHTER WHO, OF COURSE, WAS MY STEP-MOTHER.

FATHER'S WIFE THEN HAD A SON WHO KEPT THEM ON THE RUN;
AND HE BECAME MY GRANDCHILD FOR HE WAS MY DAUGHTER'S SON.

MY WIFE IS NOW MY MOTHER'S MOTHER AND IT MAKES ME BLUE...
BECAUSE ALTHOUGH SHE IS MY WIFE SHE'S MY GRANDMOTHER TOO.

NOW IF MY WIFE IS MY GRANDMOTHER THEN I'M HER GRANDCHILD; AND EVERY TIME I THINK OF IT, IT NEARLY DRIVES ME WILD!

FOR NOW I HAVE BECOME THE STRANGEST CASE YOU EVER SAW;
AS HUSBAND OF MY GRANDMOTHER I AM MY OWN GRANDPAW !! "

Frederick County YOUNKINS Reunion

Held July 22, 1990 in Boonsboro Park, Frederick County, Maryland

In charge of this event was Rev. Gale and wife, Janet 'Sunny' (LEONARD), YOUNKINS of Hagerstown, Md. The attendees were primarily descendants of Oliver Melvin Columbus YOUNKINS, son of John and Sarah Jane (FISH) YOUNKINS. John (1816-1901), and his wife Sarah Jane (1821-1901), were the parents of 9 children:

Frances Ann Catharine	b.26 Feb 1841	m. Henry KEPHART
Carlton Melanchton	b.13 May 1843	m. Margaret Ellen SIGLER
Martin Luther	b.12 Feb 1846	m. Caroline S. KOOGLE
John William Taylor	b.28 Sep 1848	m. #1 Indiana Elizabeth REEDER
		#2 Cornelia MERRYMAN
Charlotte Elizabeth 'Etta'	b. 3 Feb 1851	m. #1 Amos C. O'NEAL
		#2 ___?___ LONG
Oliver Melvin Columbus	b. 29 Jun 1853	m. #1 Charlotte Elizabeth KAETZEL
		#2 Emma L. HOFFMAN
Emory Calvin	b.15 Mar 1856	m. #1 Laura Olivia JONES
		#2 Emma E. RAY
Claretta L. J.	b. 9 Mar 1858
Mary Celesta 'Mollie'	b. 6 Mar 1861	m. Isaac JONES

Special mention should be made of two of the 'most revered' members of this family. They were the eldest in attendance at the reunion sharing the glory of the day. They are Rev. H. Austin COOPER and his wife the former Virginia YOUNKINS, daughter of Orville B. YOUNKINS and grand-daughter of Oliver M.C. YOUNKINS. Rev. COOPER has been the family historian for many years and continues at each reunion to add names and dates to the family tree.

THE YOUNGKIN LINE

by

William C. Youngkin
December, 1983

The writer has been accumulating from various sources and individuals information relating to the YOUNGKIN family, residing in the Easton, PA. area. The hope is to publish a paper periodically, as additional information is obtained from newer sources.

From the index of Church Records of Northampton it is noted that there are some twenty-seven variations of spelling the name of YOUNGKIN. Please bear in mind, being of German origin, in the old German language, there is no letter Y; the letter J was employed. So, the older way to spell the name began with the letter J.

Herewith are listed the twenty-six other ways of spelling the name, YOUNGKIN-- 1) Jokin, 2) Jukin, 3) Jundken, 4) Junckhen, 5) Juncken, 6) Junghein, 7) Junghen, 8) Jinghenn, 9) Junghin, 10) Junghkin, 11) Jungken, 12) Jungkin, 13) Junjhen, 14) Junken, 15) Junkhen, 16) Junken, 17) Junkhen, 18) Junkin, 19) Yonken, 20) Youngham, 21) Younghen, 21) Youngken, 22) Youngken, 23) Youngking, 24) Younken, 25) Younkin, and 26) Yunken.

The first known ancestor was George Junkin. As of this date little is known of this early ancestor, except to say he was the father of Peter Yunken.

So actually, this writing begins with Peter Yunken. From Rev. H.M. Kieffer's book, "Some of the First Settlers of the Forks of the Delaware", on date of July 31, 1808, Peter Yunken married Sarah Ginnard. He was born Feb. 2, 1789, and confirmed on Jan. 19, 1807, in the Dryland Church at Hecktown, Pa. He died on June 3, 1851, and was buried a short distance inside the main gate of the Easton Heights Cemetery, which was started in 1850. His wife died on Nov. 9, 1868, and is also buried in the same cemetery. Four sons were born - Reuben, William, John and Charles.

Of the next generation William Younken was born in 1819 and died on July 29, 1897. He married Susan (last name unknown). She died Mar. 18, 1864. Since she was only 48 years of age at death, William may have had additional wife(s).

In 1855 Easton City Directory a William Younken is listed as a carpenter. In 1860 Directory there is a William in partnership with Andrew Transue, selling farm implements at 19 So. Fifth St. (Not sure of the lineage of William in the two directories). Later William Youngkin was a butcher at 660 Northampton. First he was a partner with Daniel Andrews; later formed his own company. His own son and other relatives worked for the company.

There were five children, as follows:

- 1) Charles W. Youngkin married Amanda E. Kellow at St. John's Lutheran Parsonage on Feb 18, 1873.
- 2) Edward Youngkin married Celia Nicholas on Mar. 18, 1875 at St. John's Lutheran Parsonage
- 3) William Youngkin married Rosie Kieper. Place and date uncertain at this writing.
- 4) Mary A. Youngkin married Luther Davis (Venango County) on Dec. 12, 1865.
- 5) Lenora Youngkin married Marion A. Pentz (Baltimore) on Aug. 9, 1865.

In the next generation Edward Youngkin was born Nov. 23, 1853. He married Celia Nicholas on Mar. 18, 1875 at St. John's Lutheran Parsonage. Celia Nicholas was born in 1858 and died in 1937. Both are buried in the Easton Heights Cemetery.

Edward was a carpenter of repute. He served as a superintendent at the construction of the following locations: 1) Custom Houses of Norfolk, VA.; 2) St. George Hotel in Brooklyn, N.Y.; 3) Factory at Sioux City, IA.; 4) Houses and silk mill at Union Hills, N.J.; 5) Silk Mills at North 13th St.; 6) Simon's home, North 3rd St., Easton; 7) Lucy St., Homes, Easton; and others. He was maintenance engineer for R.H. Simon Silk Mills, Easton.

There were three sons:

- 1) George W. Youngkin married Moetta Morrison on May 10, 1898 by Rev. Stem of St. Mark's Reformed Church.
- 2) Herbert E. Youngkin married Lillie May Garr on June 28, 1902. Later he married Lula A. Shields.
- 3) Chester Youngkin married Nellie Amanda Miller. Date and place not known at this writing.

In the next generation Herbert Edward Youngkin was born on Mar. 4, 1879 and died Jan 1, 1964. His first wife was Lillie May Garr Youngkin, who was born Sep 4, 1874 and died May 19, 1936. Both Herbert and Lillie are buried in Easton Heights Cemetery. After the death of Lillie May Garr Youngkin, Herbert married Lula A. Shields, who died prior to death of Herbert.

It appears that early in his teenage years he acquired an aptitude for mechanics. He took home courses with the International Business School of Scranton, Pa. Also, he served an apprenticeship in his trade. Before he was thirty, he had become a well qualified machinist- in fact, he was a master mechanic. In a period of fifteen years he worked at Bethlehem Steel Co., Ingersoll-Rand Co., and Cannister Co. For Tippet and Wood Co. of Phillipsburg, N.J. he travelled in the capacity of an engineer in charge of repairs of stationary engines. Later he worked at the Edison Cement Mill, New Village, N.J. as superintendent of the machine shop, where all mechanical equipment (including locomotives) was made to operate the plant.

Since his office was next to Thomas Edison, the two became good friends. When Herbert became ill for over a month, Thomas Edison would come to personally visit with Herbert at his home. Herbert opened a Ford repair garage on Spruce St., Easton, in 1914 and closed it in the early depression to become the City Mechanic for repairing city cars and trucks. During the second World War he taught Auto Mechanics in a Phillipsburg School. Finally his last job was at Binney & Smith, where he was a supervisor in charge of a maintenance repair group. Several amusing stories have arisen, which are related here. The first story is this- while he was working at Ingersoll-Rand Co., a young man, who worked for Herbert, had great faith in Marconi. From each pay he would spend $2.00 to $4.00 for Marconi Stock (at 10¢ a share). When the Titanic went down in 1912, this young man had a trunkfull of stock valued at that time about $100.00 per share. The second story concerns his garage. Thomas Edison thought highly of Herbert's abilities, as about 1922 he sent two of his friends to Herbert's garage. These friends were Henry Ford and Harvey Firestone. In fact, Henry Ford commissioned Herbert to make for him a Model T racing car. Herbert produced a Model T rebuilt car to speed at 90 miles per hour.

Five children resulted from Herbert's first marriage to Lillie Garr. Incidentally no children resulted from his second marriage. The children were:

Elizabeth (YOUNKIN) FISTER KELLY

Elizabeth YOUNKIN was born on 25 Sep 1835/36 in Pennsylvania. She married Daniel FISTER (FEISTER) on 16 May 1852 in Clearfield, PA. by a Justice of the Peace, James GILL.

Daniel and Elizabeth FISTER lived in Baccaria Twp. in Clearfield Co., PA from 1852 until 1879 and had 14 children, all born in Clearfield Co. The Twp. of Baccaria borders on Cambria Co., PA. The [known] children's births (taken from census records) are:

Charles	b. 1854	Samuel P.	b. 1868
Andrew Jackson	b. 1856	Frasiese (?Susie)	b. 1870
Jeptha Patti	b. 1859	Cyrus David	b. 1872
John E.	b. 1861	Martha	b. 1874
Sarah E.	b. 1863	Nettie	b. 1876
Mary C.	b. 1865	Effie	b. 1879
Isabella S.	b. 1866

Daniel FISTER served in the Civil War from 27 Feb 1864 until 9 Nov 1865. He served in Company K 3rd Regiment of Pennsylvania Heavy Artillery and was honorably discharged at Ft. Monroe.

Daniel FISTER purchased four pieces of land, 1851 from George W. DAVIS, 1869 from Henry BEYER, 1872 from William WELD, 1879 from Issac RICKETTS. [note from the editor: deeds are important in family history as they often give the residence of the participating parties]. In selling the above properties Daniel, and his wife, were, in the 1st sale (1880), listed as residents of "Washington Co., NE. late of Baccaria". The 2nd sale (1881) listed their home as "Burt Co., NE".

In May 1879 Daniel and Elizabeth (YOUNKIN) FISTER removed to Iowa. The specific location is unknown but their son, Andrew, married in Jasper County, IA. in 1878 to Sarah Maria YOUNGKIN and lived in Polk County, IA. in 1880. The Daniel FISTER family moved to Burt Co., NE. in 1880 but they were not on the 1880 census there.

Daniel FISTER died in Burt Co., NE. on 22 Sep 1896 and was buried at Tekamah, Burt Co., NE. On 24 Nov 1896 Elizabeth signed an affidavit in order to receive a widow's Pension based on Daniel's Civil War Service. On 17 Apr 1898 Elizabeth married Seth KELLY who died in 1900. In 1911 she was living with her daughter, Mary STEWART, in Sturgis, Meade Co., SD. Shortly before her death, she returned to NE. and to the home of her son, Cyrus, who lived at Herman, Washington Co., NE. By a remarkable coincidence she died at 11 o'clock p.m. on November 11, 1911. Funeral services were held on Nov. 14, 1911 at the Methodist Church in Tekamah and she was buried at Tekamah, Burt Co., NE.

Announcements:

Beginning with the Jan. Feb. Mar. 1991 issue of the YFNB I will start listing new subscribers with their lineage back to the immigrant brothers (or, at least, as far back as we have). Their lineage will be done in the same format as is used throughout the newsletter - [name⁴ name³ name² name¹, etc.]. If you would like a similar listing of the subscribers to-date (142-about 10 pages) please send $2.00 to cover the costs. I will mail these out sometime in January so if you haven't sent in your line - PLEASE DO SO TODAY - so that your family can be represented on this listing. Future issues will then contain only the information on new subscribers. This listing should prove interesting as well as fun. You will be able to see just where our YOUNKINS live - how many we have on each branch of our tree - etc. If you would like to organize a state-wide reunion this listing will help you. If your future plans include traveling to other areas - you will be able to see if there is a cousin listed near your destination city.

OWNERS CHANGE BUT 'YOUNKIN HOUSE' DOESN'T COLLEGE STREET LANDMARK ON DODGE STREET

(Ran May 15, 1982)

by Irving Weber of Iowa City, Iowa

The front door of the 116-year-old Younk—Negus house, 701 E. College St., is another of the famous front doors in Iowa City [Iowa] that has been swinging for more than 100 years.

It seems odd that the name Younk is always used in referring to the house since Archibald C. and Mary C. Younk only owned the property for three years 1866-1869, immediately after the Civil War.

Margaret E. Tucker owned the property for 45 years; Hayes and Lillian Carson for 11 years; and Lewis and Lorna Negus, the current owners, are the third generation of the Negus family to have owned and lived in the house, in the 56 years it has been in the Negus family. However, the house was built while the Younk family owned the property, apparently in 1866, which no doubt accounts for the Younk name.

Lewis Negus comments that it has always seemed strange to him that the house has carried the 701 E. College St. address since it faces Dodge Street, and always has. Possibly the Younk family preferred the College Street address because it was one of the three most prestigious residential streets in Iowa City at the time.

The original 1839 plat of the pioneer village of Iowa City envisioned Iowa Avenue, the widest street in town at 120 feet, to become the Pennsylvania Avenue of Iowa City. However, Iowa Avenue never quite made it as the finest residential street, with Clinton, College and Summit streets being the top echelon.

As noted in Margaret Keyes book, Nineteenth Century Home Architecture of Iowa City, the Younk—Negus house is another of the Gothic revival style houses with peaked roofs that were so popular until shortly after the Civil War.

The Younk—Negus house at one time had a picket fence, and board sidewalks on both College and Dodge streets. I recall walking on the board sidewalks when I went to the old Fourth Ward School, located on the southwest corner of Dodge and Court streets in the so-called "noughty years," '06, '07, '08 and '09.

It is Lewis Negus' theory that the house was built in two sections, fairly close together, judging by the heavy brick wall running throughout the center of the house., north to south, though not obvious to the visitor.

There are four rooms and a half bath downstairs—a living room, library, dining room and kitchen. A beautiful rosewood whatnot imported from France graces the living room, and double doors between the rooms make them warm and inviting.

There are four bedrooms on the second floor and at one time there was a back as well as front stairway to the second floor.

Surprising, in its 116 years the house has had only the four owners—the Younk family, 1866-1869; Younk at the time was county treasurer and was to serve for three terms. It was an elective office. Later, in the 1880s he was secretary of the large Iowa City Parking Co.

The Younk—Negus house is probably the oldest of the fine houses on College Street, with the original front door still swinging. [Archibald⁴ Dr. Jonas³ Jacob² Henry¹]

Late Breaking News

It appears that there is an excellent possibility that Herman (brother of Henrich / Henry) JUNGHEN's stone has been unearthed. It seems a friend of mine, Bob Rufe, also has family that attended St. Luke's Evangelical Lutheran church near Ferndale, Bucks Co., PA. A few weeks ago he was working on the grounds and found a buried tombstone with the name JUNGHEN. Bob believes the first name was "Herman". I will be checking this out and report on it in the January issue of the YFNB. Keep your fingers crossed!!!!

I Married a Younkin

Hello again fellow I.M.A.Y.s!

You know, I've been thinking that the structure and format of the YOUNKIN FAMILY NEWS BULLETIN might be totally convoluted (convoluted, I think, means something like "ass-backwards"). Each issue is all about the Younkings, and for all the people who married Younkings — we have only this one little column. The fact of the matter is that people who married Younkings have much more in common than people who just happen to be Younkings. While I guess this could be considered our "fatal flaw", all of us I.M.A.Y.s made a conscious (or at least semi-conscious) decision to get involved with this single screwy family. This decision, that we all made, right or wrong, unites us I.M.A.Y.s in a bond that is far greater and stronger than mere bloodlines or genetics. Let's face it, to be a Younkin, all you had to do was be born, and this involved no decision what-so-ever on the part of the new baby Younkin. To be an I.M.A.Y., you had to think about it, actually do it, and finally live with the consequences of it for the rest of your life. Yes, brother and sister I.M.A.Y.s, marriage runs thicker than blood or water.....

But having met, myself, other I.M.A.Y.s, we might be terribly similar, but we are not identical. And I think the reason for this is that the Younkings we married come in different "strengths". Some Younkings are more Younkin than others. This is primarily due to inter-family marriages of the past. If your particular Younkin is the product of first, or second, or third cousin marriages in the past, the dominant Younkin characteristics are going to be much stronger.

Now you could do a lot of genealogical research to determine the "strength" of your Younkin (this is how my Younkin wife would approach the problem). But there is a much easier way.

Just take a moment to answer this simple I.M.A.Y. questionnaire. Your point total will determine the "strength" of your Younkin. Select only one answer for each question:

A. My Younkin is so stubborn that:

1. ☐ They will only admit they are wrong if 10 other Younkings tell them they are wrong.
2. ☐ They will only admit they are wrong if you show them the answer in at least 2 editions of the encyclopedia
3. ☐ They will only admit they are wrong if an angel from GOD tells them they're wrong
4. ☐ They will never admit being wrong

B. My Younkin procrastinates so badly that:

1. ☐ They sent out their Christmas cards on Christmas Day
2. ☐ They mail their Christmas cards around Easter
3. ☐ They are still planning to buy some Christmas cards
4. ☐ They don't know what Christmas cards are because they have never sent or received one

C. My Younkin's punctuality can best be described as the following:

1. ☐ They are usually at least 10 minutes late for anything that they want to do, and at least 40 minutes late for anything you want to do
2. ☐ You must always lie to them by saying that events start 3 hours earlier than they really do to have any chance of being on time
3. ☐ They are always so late, that you have given up, and attend all functions alone
4. ☐ As babies, they were 3 weeks late; graduating from high school took 15 years; they were late for your wedding; and, they will somehow arrive late for their own funeral

D. Younkings know what's best for everyone else, because they:

1. ☐ Will never pass up an opportunity to advise you on how you should live your life
2. ☐ Will not only offer advice, but will try to trick you into doing it their way
3. ☐ Will transcend advice by: issuing orders, dictates, and a variety of temper tantrums
4. ☐ Can always tell you what you did wrong in your life before you even do it

E. My Younkin's temper can best be described as:

1. ☐ Hungry zoo animals are speckled puppies in comparison
2. ☐ Pouting, silence, and nasty looks
3. ☐ Would make football coach Mike Ditka seem like Sister Teresa
4. ☐ Resembles Attila the Hun with a toothache, migraine, and hemorrhoids during a hurricane

F. My Younkin's consideration for the feelings of others is:

1. ____ That they generally feel a small pang of guilt after they have shattered another person
2. ____ They know other people have feelings, but if they can't keep them under control then that's their problem
3. ____ They have heard somewhere that other people have feelings, but it might not be true
4. ____ They know that only Younkings are born with real feelings. Other people have the feelings and sensitivity of rocks (or pond scum)

G. Younkin's are generous to a fault.

1. ____ The fault is usually someone else's
2. ____ The fault they are generous with is advice (see question D)
3. ____ They are faultless, and therefore have no generosity
4. ____ The San Andres fault has more generosity

H. My Younkin's sense-of-humor is best described by:

1. ____ They believe the only comic who was ever really funny was Jerry Lewis (they even watch the entire telethon)
2. ____ They will laugh at their own jokes
3. ____ They sometimes have trouble understanding their own jokes
4. ____ They tried laughing once, but it hurt their face

I. My Younkin's organizational abilities are best described as:

1. ____ They started to clean out the closet once, but got distracted
2. ____ They believe that all organizational responsibilities belong to the spouse (the non-Younkin), and will be done incorrectly (as they will quickly point out)
3. ____ They believe the word "organization" usually means "communist", and want no part of it
4. ____ They will lose their underwear, even if you sew their names in it

J. Younkin intellectual ability?:

1. ____ They think that "intellectual" means "egg-head", and they're not gonna be no "egg-head"
2. ____ Feel that intellectuals are un-American
3. ____ Tried it once, but it hurt their face
4. ____ Younkin intellectual ability is a contradiction in terms, like military intelligence or business ethics

Ok, I.M.A.Y.'s; add up your scores. If your score was:

10-15: Marriages outside the Younkin family have somewhat diluted the dominant Younkin traits, but you're still married to a Younkin

15-25: you have a typical Younkin for a spouse

25-35: your Younkin has strong dominant traits, so you may want to seek some professional counselling

35-40: Your Younkin is the product of numerous cousin marriages. You may wish not to procreate over 40: You have obviously added wrong, and probably have some Younkin blood back in your family history. In other words, you married one of your cousins (follow the advice of "score 35-40").

Talk to you next issue. (in fact, the next issue might be the I.M.A.Y. FAMILY BULLETIN, and we will allow one column that will be called I.A.A.Y.)

A Funny Thing Happened

I work at St. Anthony's Hospital in St. Petersburg, FL. This woman came in and her last name was spelled "JUNGHEN" [pronounced Y-O-U-N-K-I-N] and very German. We were so busy I didn't have time to ask any information. A week later I went into the computer at the hospital and couldn't find the name, not even an address. What a wonderful opportunity lost. It won't happen again!

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

From Loretta KELLDORF of Katy, TX: Vol 1 #3 pg 4 para. 5 states that Frederick born 1789 died 1838. This cannot be correct for this family group. Other issues have given this date differently and it does not fit the generation?

ALSO - Vol 1 #3 pg 3 para. 2 states that Henry and Catherine were married in Lehigh Co., PA. yet Vol 1 #2 pg 6 col. 2 referring to [Henry's] second arrival in America, it seemed to imply that he brought her with him from Germany.

Your right, Loretta, it gets confusing. In this case, I should have added an "editorial note" at the end of the article, sorry. But, keep in mind that Heber was supplying us with the research notes from his father's work. This is one of the main reasons why we need to continue our research. Heber's Dad had only found some of the available records. He was taking any notes that he could find and was trying to put the puzzles pieces together. His notes are extremely valuable to all of us as they have added to our store of misc. data that, at some point, can be put in it's proper place as research continues. You will want to read Loree Cross's article in this issue for more on Frederick's birth.

Regarding Henry and Catharine's marriage - their marriage did take place in Lehigh Co. but that doesn't mean that he didn't bring her to America. A check of the passenger list for the ship he was on might give us the answer - but then often the women and children were not listed on these lists. Keep 2 GOLDEN RULES in mind as you read these articles: 1) If there is no source given for the information - then it is questionable and requires further investigation (try writing to the author); 2) how reliable was the source?

From Ruth REIM of Ashland, NE.: My Dad had always said the YOUNKINS were Pennsylvania Dutch —and to me that is Amish or Mennonites, but neither Dad nor Grandpa were Amish. Can you tell me what religion they were back "yonder"?

Ruth, see YFNB Vol 1 #3 pg 10 "Pennsylvania Dutch" — as far as our own family, the earliest records we have found show that they were almost exclusively Lutheran (vs. Reformed, Moravian, etc.). Occasionally, a family record will show up in the records of other denominations — more than likely because the Lutheran minister was not around (these early ministers served several areas at the same time) and better to have gone to a Reformed church than none at all. By the 2nd and 3rd generations our family had splinted into some of the other denominations (i.e. Brethren, Reformed, Church of God, etc.) but still the primary religion was Lutheran.

Cousinhood

To arrive at the proper relationship between yourself and a cousin—count the number of generations between yourself and the common ancestor, and between the other person and the common ancestor. Let's say you are 8 generations from the common ancestor and the other person is 6 generations from the common ancestor. From the smallest of the two numbers [6] subtract 2 [6-2=4] for the proper degree of cousinhood. In this case you would be 4th cousins. But because there is a difference of 2 generations [8-6=2] in the distance from you and the other person to the common ancestor you are said to be—4th cousins, twice removed. Had you both been 8 generations from the common ancestor—you would simply be 6th cousins. [submitted by Robert J. Libby of Iowa City, IA.]

SPOTLIGHT ON OUR STARS

George Worthington Younkin

A native of New York City, he was born November 6, 1923, on 116th Street in upper Manhattan, the only son of George W. and Marion (Lydecker) Younkin. George's grandfather, Terry Lloyd Younkin, was born in Williamson County, IL. His G-grandfather had settled in Williamson Co. about 1830 coming from Pa.

George grew up in the New York City suburb of Flushing. One of George's hobbies as a young adult was the construction and exhibition of Marionettes. He made most of his own characters and also constructed the stages. A photograph taken at one of George's shows appeared in an older issue of the YFNB [Vol. 3 # 1 & 2 dated 25 Sep 1940] with the following caption: "Worthington, now 16 years old, gives Marionette shows in churches, community centers, etc. as a hobby. He has also given exhibitions at the New York World's Fair."

George attended P.S. 20 and Flushing High School from which he graduated in 1941. During WWII he served in the Army Signal Corps. He was discharged in 1946 with the rank of Sergeant and matriculated at Michigan State University, where he received the B.S.E.E. degree in 1950.

After several years with the Westinghouse Company and Giddings and Lewis (G & L) Machine Tool Co., George returned to his educational pursuits. He received his Masters Degree from the University of Wisconsin in 1957.

George was honored in 1988 as the recipient of Top IAS Award [source: newsletter of the IEEE - Institute of Electrical and Electronic Engineers] The purpose of this Distinguished Service Award is to give recognition and honor to a member for rendering exceptional service to the Industry Applications Society. George Younkin received this award in recognition of his continued important service to the IAS since 1966.

George and his wife Nancy (a Masters graduate of University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh -School of Psychology) live in Fond du Lac, Wisconsin. Nancy pursued a career as both an Elementary School Guidance Director and School Psychologist. Their children (both graduates of Univ. of Wisc.) are: a son, Gregory, and a daughter, Janine.

"Letter to the Editor" of the local newspaper asking for help of the area residents in finding the descendants of this YOUNKIN/FISTER family. Ask the editor to place this notice in the newspaper's genealogical column (which they probably won't have!) and if not there then in the Letters to the Editor column (almost everyone reads this column - if nothing else). I have had good success with this method and they usually don't charge for such a notice, but check first to be sure.

There are some indications as to where this Elizabeth might belong on the family tree. Recently I ordered the Will and Estate record for Henry Younkin (youngest son of the immigrant, Henrich/Henry JUNGHEN) from the Indiana Co., PA. courthouse. Though Henry Jr. left his birthplace of Bucks Co., PA. and went to Loudoun Co., VA., he actually died in Brush Valley, Indiana Co., PA. on 20 Jul 1859. His Will shows us: #1) that his wife pre-deceased him, as she was not mentioned in the Will, and #2) all of his living children, namely: Aaron, David, Elizabeth DEAL, Sarah ASH [ESCH], Charles, Reuben and Mariah [Anna Maria] HERLINGER. Though Henry Jr. died in 1859, the legacies to his children were not paid until 1862/1863. What this tells us is that all of the children were still alive in 1863. If any one of them had died in the meantime the legacy would have been paid to a grandchild or divided amongst the other siblings. The only son of Henry Jr. that I have found living in Indiana Co. was Aaron. Which leads me to question "where were the other sons?" The close proximity of Indiana

Co. to Cambria and Clearfield Counties may indicate a possibility. Estate #1212 of Clearfield Co., PA. for a David Younkin, died 1874 intestate [no Will] late of White Twp. Cambria Co. gives us some clues. This David's Estate Administrator was John H. FISKE and in his statement to the courts he said "the personal estate of the decedent is insufficient for the payment of the debts" so he asked the court to agree to allow him to sell a tract of land that David had owned which was partly in the Reade Twp. (formerly White Twp.) Cambria Co. and partly in Bacarra Twp., Clearfield Co. The debtors (whose relationships are not stated) were: Andrew YOUNKIN, Aaron YOUNKIN, Susan YOUNKIN, Abraham MATTHEWS, and Joseph YOUNKIN. These given names are an excellent clue.

Today people give their children any name that appeals to them (i.e. favorite soap opera character) but back then you "honored" your relatives by naming your children after them. The pattern was normally: The first male child was given the paternal grandfather's name the second male child was given the maternal grandfather's name. The same naming sequence was used for the first and second female children. Then they went on to honor the Grandparents, Uncles, Aunts, etc. In tracing the census records, there is, again, close similarity in given names between the Indiana, Cambria, and Clearfield Co., PA. families and the ones in Jasper Co., IA. - where Ina's family is known to have lived. Ina still has her work cut out for her and would very much appreciate any help from our readers who have access to records in these areas.

 THE YOUNGKIN LINE (continued from Page 4)

- 1) Elizabeth Youngkin who married Stephen Beach. Upon Stephen's death, Elizabeth then married James McConnell.
- 2) Edward Herbert Youngkin, who died unmarried.
- 3) Lillian Youngkin, who died early at age three.
- 4) William Chester Youngkin, who married Mae Harding in Elkton, Md. on May 5, 1934.
- 5) James Franklin Youngkin who married Betty Lohman in Texas.

The next generation concerns William Chester Youngkin, who was born on Oct. 9, 1912, at 206 North 11th St., Easton, Pa. He was married on May 5, 1934, at Elkton, Md. to Mae Harding.

Upon graduation from Lafayette College with qualifications to teach history, Latin and German, William did some substitute teaching for a year and a half. Unable to obtain a permanent teaching position (due to the depression), he worked for the State Unemployment Relief Board; later he became clerk, then chief clerk with the State Liquor Stores. Finally, he started with the Accounts Payable for Bethlehem Steel Corp. as an accounting clerk. At retirement in 1977, his last position was chief clerk in Raw Material Accounting with same company.

Three sons were born to this marriage.

- 1) William Chester Youngkin, Jr. who married Betty Rogers on Dec. 31, 1966 at Sylvania, Ohio.
- 2) Herbert Harding Youngkin, who married Sharon Shepherd on Sep. 10, 1967 at New Port Ritchey, FL.
- 3) Edward James Youngkin, who married Kay Ling Lee on Dec. 31 1965 at St. Mark's United Church of Christ, Easton, PA.

Written and submitted by: William Chester Youngkin, Rte. 3 Box 1044; Lacey's Spring, AL 35754 - In William's latest letter to me, he added the following update to his family's story: "My sister, Elizabeth, was married to James McConnell. He was Secretary of Agriculture under Eisenhower. When my brother-in-law became ill, his assistant, Ezra Benson (now President of the Mormon Church) became Secretary and James then was made his assistant. He was also Director of Cornell Univ., L.V.R.R. and Head of Agway." William lists his sources as: 1) WPA Project - Newspaper extracts (1852-1884) 2) Church records 3) Records of Easton's Cemeteries 4) Durham Cemetery in Bucks Co., PA. 5) Court Records 6) City Directories 7) Personal Family Records

YOUNKEN FAMILIES PENNSYLVANIA, WEST VIRGINIA, & KANSAS

Few of our families offer a more colorful history than does that of Charles L. and Nancy (HENRY) YOUNKEN. Charles was the son of George and Nancy (JOHNSTON) YOUNKEN, the grandson of John M. and Catharina (KILLICHER) YOUNKIN and Great-grandson of our immigrant, Henrich JUNGHEIN. Nancy (HENRY) YOUNKEN was the daughter of John and Elizabeth (IMEL) HENRY.

No less than 3 of Charles and Nancy's sons served bravely in the Civil War. They were namely: Daniel H. m. Margaret E. BRADEN; William Henry m. Elizabeth (STARKEY) PIATT (widow of a Civil War casualty, Robert PIATT); and Jefferson m. Matilda Ann RICKEY. All three sons survived the War. Of Charles and Nancy's other children we have: Elizabeth m. Isaac BELL; Mary m. Cornelius 'Neal' DORSEY; Eliza m. John FINNEGAN; Thaddeus m. Nancy Jane ___; Nancy L. m. Jesse Lazear BARNETT. Charles and Nancy settled in Richill Twp., Greene Co., PA. and it was in this same area that they both died. Charles on the 14th of October 1872 and Nancy on the 13th of December 1889. They are both buried in the Lazear Cemetery.

Research on this family has been made especially difficult as the descendants have scattered far and wide through these United States. Some of them moving to Cameron & Moundsville, Marshall Co., WV, some to Kansas, and some to Washington Co., PA.

Those staying closest to home were the families of Jefferson YOUNKEN. To this day many remain in the area of Washington, Washington Co., PA. It is of this family of Jefferson that we shall speak. Jefferson was born 5 Oct 1843 (source: family bible record). He was married 18 May 1867 in Graysville, Greene Co., Pa. to Matilda A RICKEY, dau. of Frank and Mary (GOODWIN) RICKEY. Jefferson was, without a doubt, a man who held great stock in the matters of his involvement in the Civil War. In the OBSERVER [Washington, Pa. newspaper-provided by Mark Miner of Wexford, PA.] we find on page 3 the October 7th 1913 issue the following byline & article:

"CIVIL WAR VETERANS BIRTHDAY REUNION - Old soldiers in Vicinity of Wind Ridge Get Together in Honor of Jefferson Younken of Graysville." ...

The twelfth birthday reunion of the Civil War veterans of Richill twp. was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson Younken of Graysville on Saturday October 4, to celebrate the 70th birthday of Mr. Younken.

One year had passed since the organization of this society and eleven reunions have been held during that year.... Several of the veterans gave short talks on reminiscences of army life..."

During one of these reunions Jefferson, no doubt, recalled for his comrades, his participation in the Battle of Gettysburg. For it was in this great battle, often termed the turning point of the struggle between the North & South, that Jefferson was wounded in the knee with enemy fire [YFNB-vol 1 #3-1938]. Jefferson carried the mini-ball to his grave - it was never removed.

Jefferson and Matilda had 9 children all of whom were born near Graysville, Greene Co., PA.: Clara Belle m. George McClellan SCOTT; Franklin Collingwood (never married); Thomas Jefferson m. #1 Alice Tilton FINCH #2 Olive Boyd ORNDOFF; Nancy Mae m. John Flanagan WILEY; Blanche Catherine (family bible records her name as Sarah C.) m. Mathias Clark JONES; Lydia Ann (never married); and three children who died in infancy.

[my thanks go to Gertrude (granddaughter of Jefferson) and her husband Wilfred BURNS and their daughter of Washington, PA & FL., Carolyn CARMAN of FL.; Ginny TONEY of TX. (desc. of Nancy (YOUNKEN) and Jesse BARNETT); Beverly PALARINO of PA. (desc. of Eliza (YOUNKEN) & John FINNEGAN); and Charles 'Donovan' WOOD of SC (desc. of Mary (YOUNKEN) and Neal DORSEY) for their assistance with family records. Also to Mark MINER for his ability to spot our YOUNKIN / YOUNKEN name as he researches various old newspapers - he never fails to copy the articles and send them to me - thanks Mark!]

LOSING TOUCH THE VIETNAM YEARS

By Burrows T. 'Jay' Younkin, Jr.
Illustrated by Chris Decker

"You touched me— Almost,"

... is a typical image from this volume of poetry. These Vietnam War veterans, most of the time, saw so much death that they became hardened to love, afraid to lose that love. Burrows Younkin writes to rejoice in his newfound way of dealing with love...

"My steps have become deeper, Burning though they be, For I can love again—now."

In the preface, Burrows Younkin writes that the poems "are a portrayal of the impact of the Vietnam War on my relationships with others in my life...also symbolic of the isolation from families and friends felt by the majority of Vietnam veterans."

Nothing to Offer

I have nothing to offer;
There was a time, once, long ago
When a word said softly
With a smile—I know
Would have been enough;
Time has passed
So slowly,
But really too fast,
And so we meet again
In the late autumn
Instead of the spring,
You give your heart
But I have nothing to bring;
I came with the winter winds
And the noise of falling leaves,
When I go, my steps will be softer,
Lighter than a midnight breeze,
Going on its way
With nothing to offer.

LOSING TOUCH
THE VIETNAM YEARS

Burrows, or 'Jay' as he is known to his friends, served his country as a member of the U.S. Marine Corps. in the Viet Nam conflict from March 22, 1966 to February 14, 1967. He has been a strong advocate of the Vietnam veteran issues for several years. He is the immediate past-president of the Vietnam Veterans of America, Rhode Island Chapter 325. Jay should be applauded for his heartfelt dedication to these issues. In the spring of 1987, Jay and several friends, all members of the South County, Rhode Island Chapter of the Vietnam Veterans of America, discussed the possibility of walking a POW/MIA flag across the country to draw attention to the issue of those still listed as missing in Vietnam. After months of planning, on September 5th 1987 the silver and black flag, representing thousands of men still listed as missing, began it's trip across these United States in an emotion filled ceremony where the flag was dipped in the Atlantic Ocean. On October 22nd 1988 on Galeta Beach in California, Jay Younkin raised a tattered flag and again dipped it in the ocean waters—this time to the cheering of 100+ veterans and their families chanting "Bring them home, Jay. Bring them home." It should be noted that the symbolic flag made it's trip through the dedication and efforts of numerous Veteran groups across the country. Most recently, Jay served as part of a delegation that returned to Viet Nam in 1988 to meet with top ranking Vietnamese government officials to discuss the POW/MIA issue. Jay & his delegation were successful in securing the return of the remains of 23 of our soldiers.

Our Military Men

WALTER S. YOUNKIN was born 10 Jun 1833 in Turkeyfoot Twp., Somerset Co., PA. Walter's parents, Dr. Jonas and Martha (PRINGEY) YOUNKIN, were among the many YOUNKIN families that moved, with their families, during the 1850s to the western frontier. Walter was married on 5 May 1856 to Eva M. TROYER by Stephen Palmer Judge of Henry County, IL. Walter and Eva were blessed with 2 sons, Warren E. b. 25 Mar 1858 and Howard V. b. 30 May 1862. As fate would have it, these were the only children Walter would ever father.

It was in Annawan, Henry Co., IL. that Walter enlisted in the Union Army on 12 Aug 1862. He was mustered into service on 20 Sep 1862 as a Corporal in the 112th Illinois Vol. for a term of 3 years. His physical description, as noted by the enlistment officer was: 5'8" tall, light complexion, black hair and blue eyes. He served almost three full years and was mustered out on 20 Jun 1865 with the remaining men in his company. Little did Walter know, as he rejoined his family, that, in fact, the biggest battle he was to ever fight had barely begun. His general debility on returning home, was, no doubt, thought to be simple exhaustion from the years of the war. His weakness became worse and after numerous visits to doctors, Walter found that, sometime during his years of military service, he had developed diabetes. The fact that Walter's name does not appear on the lists of men attended by military physicians during the war attests to his bravery - he had suffered in silence.

On November 19th 1868 Walter died. Two letters contained in Walter's pension file tell his story. The first being a letter from Walter's brother, Dr. Edwin YOUNKIN, of St. Louis, Missouri who stated that he had treated his brother and that he had died from Gangrene Senilis a complication resulting from Diabetes. The other letter was from Walter's mother. Martha wrote, "I was called in to help take care of him during his last illness and was with him constantly during the seven weeks immediately preceding his death and was with him at the time of his death, which was on the 19th day of November A.D. 1868. During the time I helped to take care of him, he suffered greatly with pains and swelling ... that he was confined to his bed all the time I was with him." Walter was buried in Fairview Cemetery in Sheffield, Henry Co., IL.

Eva (TROYER) YOUNKIN married again on 7 Dec 1871 to William H. GILLESPIE by whom she had 2 daughters, Hattie b. 1872 and Kittie b. 1874. This was not to be a happy marriage for Eva as in 1875 she and William were separated and later divorced. The ultimate whereabouts of Eva and her 2 daughters is unknown.

Of Walter and Eva's two sons, Warren Eugene and Howard Venvelsy YOUNKIN we do know. Several of our readers are descendants of these sons. Warren m. Maggie M. STEPHENS and settled in Dorchester, NE. Howard m. Clara B. EARL and lived for many years in IL, but later moved to the Omaha, NE. area. [Walter⁴ Dr. Jonas³ Jacob² Henry¹]
